GAMBLING HOUSE RAIDED AND MANY VICTIMS CAUGHT

Officers Made Best Haul of the Season Sunday Night.

TERRY CARMAN'S POKER ROOM

Was the Scene of the Raid, Which Was Well Carried Out.

INMATES BADLY FRIGHTENED

The Proprietor, With Twelve Others Engaged in the Games, Was Placed Under Arrest—About 30 Spectators Were Present Also.

A gambling house on Midway alley, conducted by Terry Carman, was raided Saturday night, at a late hour by Chief Thompson, together with Officers Morris and Dawson. The raid was well planned and successfully carried out, and was the most productive of any in many months past.

For several hours previous to making the "pull," the officers kept a close watch on the place, and when they finally decided to act the gambling tables were in full blast and the room filled with sports of every class. It is estimated that 50 young men were congregated in the place when the officers appeared on the scene, though only 12 of the number were engaged in the games.

The raid was a complete surprise to the gamesters, as not a single one of them had the least inkling of the officers' intentions until the blue coats were in full possession of everything in sight. Pandemonium reigned for a time and several of the "tenderfeet" became weak at the knees; but the proprietor urged the young men to keep cool and gave the assurance they wouldn't be harmed.

Those not engaged in the games were allowed to go, but the players were placed under arrest. The proprietor was also taken into custody. On his promise to put up the necessary cost to liquidate his fine and those of his colleagues, none of the victims were taken to jail. All promised to appear at the mayor's office today for trial.

Following is a list of the names as given to Chief Thompson, several of which are said to be fictitious: Charles McGinnis, James Whiting, Arthur Rogers, Frank Williamson, George Eoff, James Briggs, John McGunnell, William Henry, J. Sigsby, Frank Boyd, George French and Jim Colley.

Many of the gamesters are of prominent family and it was a surprise to the officers to find them in the place.

Shortly before noon today Carman called at the mayor's office and paid a fine of $10 and costs. The others were assessed $6.60 each. All paid up and were allowed to go.

POLICE WERE BUSY

MANY VICTIMS GATHERED IN SUNDAY NIGHT.

Disorderly House at West End Raided, Also a West Market Street Saloon.

Following the raiding of the Midway alley gambling house on Saturday night, the officers, spurred to greater activity by the fruitfulness of the haul made, started in again on Sunday night and made things lively for a time.

Barney Mulrine conducts a saloon on West Market street. The police learned he was dispensing drinks at a time he should have been attending Sunday worship and contrary to the ordinances of the city. Accordingly Chief Thompson, together with Officers Mahoney and Dawson, called at Barney's place of business and took temporary possession.

Mrs. Mulrine was back of the bar, while Joe Cowell and Jack Hausmiller was in front of the counter smacking their lips over large schooners of the amber stuff. The two loiterers were taken to police headquarters, where they put up security for their appearance for trial this evening.

Later in the evening Chief Thompson, together with the entire police force, quietly made their way to the West End, where they swooped down on the disorderly house conducted by Mrs. Nellie Brown. The woman and four of her understudies—Fern Young, Maud Howard, Marie Johnson and Irene McElvay—together with William Hawley, a stranger in the city, were all placed under arrest.

Just as one of the officers started to summon the patrol wagon, the females produced several huge rolls of greenbacks which they turned over to the chief for security for their appearance for trial. The male visitor also put up a gold piece to escape a ride to the jail. The aggregation was instructed to call on Mayor Davidson tonight at 7 o'clock, when he will hear their stories as to how it all happened.

Charles McGavern was arrested Sunday night by Officer Morris. Charley was shamefully soaked with fire water and his cerebrum had become foggy. He was assisted to jail in the patrol and this morning was fined $1 and costs. He was broke and still languishes in jail.

John Brick was found in a box car on the Horn switch Sunday night by Chief Thompson. He was fast asleep and was much surprised when he found himself under arrest. The patrol conveyed him to jail and this morning he was fined $1 and costs. He managed to raise the fine and was released.

Peter Mullen was arrested Saturday evening by Patrolmen Woods and Rose on the charge of petit larceny. The young man was accused of having stolen a quantity of fish from Nisson & Pennybaker's place of business on West Market street.

Mullen was locked up in jail a short time and then taken before Mayor Davidson. He was badly frightened and shed copious tears. On his promise to pay for the stolen fish, the mayor dismissed the young man, after administering an articulated castigation.

Jack Farmer, arrested several days since and later released from jail on his promise to pay his fine, fulfilled his agreement Saturday night, when he called at the mayor's office and turned over the full amount of his assessment.

TAKEN ILL IN CHURCH

MRS. JACOB SHENKEL SEIZED WITH A FAINTING SPELL.

For a Time Her Life Was Despaired Of—Now Out of Danger.

While attending church services at the Methodist Protestant church yesterday morning Mrs. Jacob Shenkel was seized with a fainting spell, and for a time her life was despaired of. She was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Berg, on Jefferson street, and a physician summoned. It was with great difficulty that she was restored, and the lady was unconscious for more than two hours. A carriage was procured, but it was impossible to remove her until late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Shenkel was taken to her home on Basil avenue last evening and is somewhat improved today.

ROUGH PLAY

Causes Painful Injury to Roy Smith, a Klonkide Pottery Workman.

Roy Smith, of Smith's Ferry, met with a painful accident at the Klonkide pottery Saturday. He was wrestling with a fellow workman who seized a polishing knife and struck him on the arm, cutting a large gash. He was taken to the office of a physician, where the injury was dressed.

CHILD CAME NEAR DEATH BY DROWNING

FELL HEAD FIRST INTO A LARGE CAN OF WATER.

When Found the Little One Was Unconscious, But Its Life Was Saved.

A small child of Edgar Thorne, who resides in the Davidson block on Second street, fell into a large can filled with water at noon Sunday and was thought to be dead when found.

The child was playing about the can when it accidentally tripped and stumbled, falling head first into the vessel, which was full to the top with water which had been used for scrubbing. Mr. Thorne discovered the imperiled youngster and when it was drawn out of the water there were no signs of life. The father went for a doctor and then returned home as soon as possible. He stood the child on its head and rubbed its body and by the time the physician arrived the little one was revived to consciousness.

HEAVY FROST

IN SOME SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY LAST NIGHT.

Believed That Fruit Prospects Were Not Greatly Injured By It.

There was a heavy frost throughout the country districts last night, and it may be that a great deal of harm will be done the fruit crop.

The heaviest frost occurred at points north of the city, but it was impossible to determine the extent of the damage, as those spoken to about the frost left their homes so early in the morning that the fruit trees were still covered with the stuff.

However, a number of authorities were consulted, among them being John B. Birch, the fruit tree man, and they say there is no real cause for alarm.

The buds on a great majority of the fruit tree have reached a point so near maturity that it would take a frost much heavier than that of last night to nip them. Another thing that men well versed on these matters give as a reason for thinking the injury will not be great, is the fact that the leaves have come out, and to a certain extent protect the blossoms.

The prospects are good for one of the largest fruit crops in years, and from present indications this will not be confined to any one particular kind of fruit, but will be general.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE?

GERMAN DRAGGED FROM THE RIVER SATURDAY NIGHT.

Believed He Tried to Drown Himself Was Under Influence of Liquor.

Sunday night a man aged about 40 years, thought to be a German, but whose name was not learned, was dragged from the river near the foot of Union street in a semi-conscious state.

How he got into the water is not known, but it is said he accidentally fell overboard from a shanty boat. Another man, who is supposed to have been a companion of the German, told Officer Stoffard he was drunk and had attempted to suicide. Before the officer could investigate, the man who was rescued had disappeared.

LOCKED IN JAIL

Two Wellsville Men Accused of Attempted Horse Stealing Were Arrested.

It is charged that Andrew McCormick and John Skelley, of Wellsville, boldly attempted to steal a team of fine driving horses and a buggy belonging to Charles McLane, of Irondale, yesterday afternoon.

TRADES COUNCIL

IMPORTANT BUSINESS TO COME BEFORE NEXT MEETING.

Standing Committees to Be Appointed Wednesday Evening—Labor Day Picnic.

Trades and Labor Council will meet in regular session on Wednesday night, and in order to start the year in proper shape a great deal of preliminary business will be transacted.

President McLane will appoint a number of standing committees. This is one of the most important matters to be disposed of throughout the year. When it is considered that a vast majority of the questions considered by the council are referred to and gone over by the committees, it can readily be understood how important it is to have the right parties in the right place in the composition of the committees.

The constitution provides for committees on organization, legislation and union labels and each is composed of three members. The committee on grievance and arbitration consists of five members, and it is one of the most important in connection with the organization.

One of the recent amendments to the constitution provides that there shall be a standing committee, whose duty it will be to have charge of and conduct the Labor day picnic, which is always conducted under the auspices of Trades Council.

A COLD BATH

Given a Man Who Tried to Leap from the Ben Hur After She Started.

William Baker received a good ducking at the wharf boat yesterday morning. The Ben Hur was tied in at the wharf, and Baker, with a number of other people, were on the boat. He did not get off when the last bell rang and when it pulled out he attempted to jump to the wharf. He missed his guess and fell into the water.

A number of friends pulled him out at the end of the wharf and he was uninjured save for the bath.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

A New West Ender.—Born to Mr. and Mrs. James Skelton, West End, a son.

At Columbian Park—The Crocker City and Emeralds base ball teams are playing at Columbian park. The game was called at 4 o'clock.

Challenged the Delmonico — The Phoenix base ball team has challenged the Delmonico club for a game next week. Arrangements are being made for the contest and it promises to be a warm one.

Exciting Runaway—A team and buggy belonging in Salem ran off on Second street yesterday afternoon, the horses taking fright at the street railway repair car, and running into a telegraph pole, badly demolishing the vehicle.

Prepared for Coon Hunting — Roy Rinehart has purchased a fine coon dog. It was received from Marietta Thursday afternoon. Mr. Rinehart, William Zane and Jesse Evans will spend the night in West Virginia coon hunting.

Goes to the Hospital.—Hattie Woodburn, who was injured several years ago by falling into a coal hole on Walnut street, was this morning taken to Pittsburg by her brother, John Woodburn. She will enter a hospital at that place.

City Growing Bigger.—The population of the city increased a little yesterday, caused by three new families moving to town. They were John R. Gray, from Indiana, Mrs. J. Rutledge, from East Palestine and Claude Massey from Bridgeport.

Justice Rose Made a Hit—Justice J. Rose, local commander of the G. A. R., made the hit of the encampment at Bellefontaine by his happy speech nominating E. F. Taggart, of Akron, for department commander. He also made an excellent address at the big camp fire.

New Firm — The Diamond Hardware company has changed hands. M. L. Otterman, of Youngstown, and H. F. Fowler, of Warren, are the new proprietors. Mr. Otterman has been many years in the business, and the new firm gives promise of being thoroughly up-to-date. They will soon have interesting announcements to make in the advertising columns.

Funeral of Mrs. Dickey—The funeral of Mrs. Catharine Dickey took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Baum, 203 Seventh street. Dr. Clark Crawford officiated and interment was made in Riverview cemetery. Mrs. Dickey had between 50 and 60 grandchildren, eight of whom acted as pall-bearers.

Trespass Case—Justice J. N. Rose this morning was called on to act in a case filed in his court. Herman Zeiner, an employee of the American Clay Manufacturing company at Walker's, entered suit against Steve Smuder and a man named Dragon, charging them with unlawful trespass on the grounds of the above company. The case is being heard this afternoon. All men involved are Slavs.

ORDER IN EFFECT.

Railroad Employees Warned They Must Not Use Tobacco.

The first of the month the Pennsylvania company issued an order that the use of tobacco by employees while on duty and others while around their property must be discontinued. The rule was not observed at the freight station and yesterday an officer of the company was in the city and informed the employees and draymen personally that they must not use tobacco while on their ground.

HORSE WHIPS

And Hot Water Used By Alliance Woman, Who Forced Telephone Men to Quit.

The work of erecting poles at Alliance by the Independent Telephone company was brought to an abrupt end yesterday, when two incensed women with horsewhips and scalding water pounced down on the workmen, who were digging post holes and forced them to quit.

Attorneys from Canton are now attempting to adjust the difficulty.

THE OLDEST MAN WHO GARRIES MAIL

William Scadden, of Chester, Said to Be Entitled to That Distinction.

HAS HAD AN EVENTFUL CAREER

Knew Indians And Was a Pioneer War Experience—Makes Regular Boatman—Fought a Panther—His Trips at the Age of 87.

The oldest mail carrier in the United States is William Scadden. He makes daily trips between East Liverpool and Mercer Postoffice, W. Va. Mercer is an old postoffice around which the new and thriving town of Chester has grown up. Chester is less than two years old, but her mail carrier is almost 87.

Rain or shine, in the heat of summer and in the snows of winter, the aged carrier makes his trips on foot, carrying his mail sack on his back, says the Chronicle Telegraph. The distance is about a mile and the carrier's salary is $125 a year. The remuneration is not large, but the work occupies Mr. Scadden's time for only about an hour a day. He is a veteran of the Civil war, and with a pension of $12 a month and some income from other sources, has ample money for his needs. The old man has carried the mail for three years and has the contract for carrying it for four more. Mr. Scadden is likely to fill out the full time, as he is apparently strong and vigorous. To see him on the street no one would take him to be a day over 60.

Wm Scadden has had an interesting and varied career. His parents were pioneer settlers at the "forks of the Yough" where the city of McKeesport now stands, and had their full share of the hardships of the early days, including several narrow escapes from death at the hands of the Indians. Early in the present century they moved to Frankfort Springs, Beaver county, Pa., where William was born July 4, 1814. Indians were numerous in his boyhood days and he had many acquaintances among them. Mr. Scadden tells an interesting story of a fight between "Bigfoot," an Indian of giant stature, and Adam Poe, a river settler who lived just over the Ohio line in Beaver county, and points out the spot where it occurred. Poe was the largest white man in all the western country. "Bigfoot" had been making raids with his band, and Poe vowed vengeance. One day the two giants met at point opposite Wellsville. The Indian was seated beneath a ledge of rock when Poe came upon him. They fought with nature's weapons, and the contest was a fierce one. "Bigfoot" was getting the better of Poe when a party of the latter's friends came up and interfered. The Indian was killed and the country was rid of a terror.

But farm life in a forest was not altogether to Mr. Scadden's liking, and when about 15 he ran away from home. He soon fell in with some of the crew of the Robert Emmet, a pioneer Ohio river steamer, and obtained a berth on the boat as cabin boy. It was years before his parents ever saw him again, or knew that he was alive. He led a boatman's life for perhaps ten years, rising from the position of cabin boy to that of watchman, and was greatly esteemed and honored by his employers. When he left the boat they presented him with a fine watch and chain. Mr. Scadden's next business venture was to embark in keelboating along with the Poes, his neighbors. Their traffic was between Pittsburgh, Wheeling and Marietta, sometimes extending as far as Cincinnati. The freight charge for goods was 12 1/2 cents a hundred from Pittsburgh to Wheeling. The boats were poled, and were difficult to manage. Sometimes on the up trip they were towed by horses. Engaged in this business were Jacob, Adam and Thomas Poe. Out of the profits of keelboating in later years they became steamboat owners.

Mr. Scadden tells of a trip he made to Cincinnati with another lad, accompanying a party of immigrants. The boys were paid off at Cincinnati and started to walk home. They stopped wherever night overtook them. Sometimes they could find a roof to shelter them; oftener they could not. One evening when they were on their travels they were pursued by a large and fierce panther. Knowing that they would be overtaken and killed unless their pursuer was disposed of, they took a stand in an open place and decided to fight. Scadden's companion had a pistol, and both armed themselves with large clubs. When the panther came into view and was stealing upon them, the pistol was fired. It wounded the beast, and also maddened him. He rushed on furiously, and the young men wielded their clubs for their lives. They came out victorious and pursued their journey, leaving the huge animal stretched dead upon the ground.

When the Civil war broke out Scadden, who was then a married man, was living in Meigs county, in this state. He enlisted in Company I, Fifty-third O. V. I., and served through the fierce Shiloh campaign, having many narrow escapes and seeing much hard service. After a year and a half of soldier life he was discharged for physical disability and returned home. All his comrades agree that he was a good soldier. His next war experience was with the Morgan Raiders, 500 of whom camped on his farm in Meigs county, stole his horses and stripped house, barn and farm of everything they fancied. When the raiders left the Scaddens were as destitute as if a cyclone had despoiled their homestead.

Shortly after the war Mr. Scadden came to this county and for a number of years was engaged in farming near Lisbon. Thence he moved to West Virginia, where he has since resided. He is a leading member of the Chester Free Methodist church, which was organized and built largely through his efforts. He gave $400 toward building the church, and is the president of the board of trustees. He is a working member, and whenever money is to be raised he is the man selected for the task. Mr. Scadden believes in work, and says he expects to work as long as he lives.

His wife, whose maiden name was Anna Beard, died a few years ago at the age of 81, after 60 years of happy married life. One daughter, Mrs. Lyman Lambrone, of East Liverpool, is their only child. Mr. Scadden has seven grandchildren and makes his home with one of them. He has hosts of friends and is widely known.

The foregoing article was published under an East Liverpool date, in the Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph of last Friday. The cut is reproduced in these columns by courtesy of that paper.

ITALIANS' WASHING

Scattered to the Four Winds By a Violent Windstorm on Sunday.

The Italians who reside in the shanty on the hill above the Smith addition furnished considerable amusement for pedestrians on upper Pennsylvania avenue yesterday. The dark-skinned wanderers from the sunny land always do their washing on Sunday. Yesterday they had just finished their work and had hung the garments out to dry when a windstorm came up and a large beach tree near the shanty was blown down. It barely missed the shanty and fell directly across the clothes line.

The line was broken and the garments were scattered far and wide over the hillside. In gathering these up the Italians gave an exhibition of sprinting that perhaps excelled anything in this line ever seen among Italians in this city. No fights occurred, but loud words were plentiful, and if they had talked English they would doubtless have been arrested on a charge of profanity.

CHICKEN THIEVES

Made a Successful Raid on the Poultry Yard of Michael Stilwell.

Michael Stilwell, of Calhoun addition, was visited by thieves Saturday night. They stole eight fancy chickens and several valuable articles from his hen house and were evidently only beginning business when a neighbor discovered them and reported to Stilwell. The thieves, however, made good their escape.

Mr. Stilwell thinks that the thieves were people who don't live far away and are desirous of starting into the poultry business themselves. He is trying to gather a little evidence and hopes to locate the guilty party.

EAST END GIRLS' CLUB.

One of Its Objects Is to Divide Important Secrets.

The latest thing in the way of a society club to be formed in the East End is the T. G. G. club, which is composed of girls about 15 years of age. These young misses have so many secrets in common that they find it necessary to meet once every week and "unload." After the unloading is done they spend the remaining hours of the evening at games and luncheons.

The first meeting of this club was held last Friday evening. After electing officers the young ladies passed the evening at a "flower" game, two prizes being offered for the ladies who could guess the names of the largest number of flowers, after examining the blossoms separately. Miss Mary Duncan drew the first prize and Miss Kate Stamm the second. Their next meeting will be held at the Stamm residence next Friday night.

A Nail Through His Hand.

Alf McKinnon is suffering from a painful wound, the result of an accident in which a rusty nail was forced almost through his hand. The member is badly swollen and inflamed and it is possible that blood poison may result. He will be unable to be at work for some time.

Got a Thirty-Pound Fish.

Coon Goodballet and William Podmore, who were fishing at Beaver creek Saturday, report that they caught a 30-pound catfish near the mouth of the creek.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

John Capehart is off duty on account of illness.

William Stody, of Calhoun addition, is off duty on account of illness.

James Fulton and wife spent Sunday visiting friends at Smith's Ferry.

It is reported that the frost last night did considerable damage to the fruit in the river valley.

Rev. G. W. Orcutt accompanied the Hoskins family to Wheeling yesterday, where the remains of the late Mrs. Joanna Hoskins were interred. Rev. J. N. Swan, of the Presbyterian church, filled his pulpit morning and evening at the Second Methodist Episcopal church.

BAPTIST AID ASKED

Brethren in the Fire-Swept City of Jacksonville Sadly in Need of Help.

SCORES REPORTED HOMELESS

Many Destitute—Church Must Be Rebuilt—Baptists Throughout the Country Asked to Assist and Rebuild the First Church.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 13.—The Baptists of Jacksonville Sunday issued the following appeal to the Baptists of America:

"Dear Brethren—Jacksonville, the metropolis and gate city of Florida, is in ruins. The great fire of May 3, the greatest that the New South has ever known, burned 132 blocks in the most thickly settled portion of the city and destroyed every church and every school building in the city proper.

"The First Baptist church, with its contents, was destroyed. Our pastor and family saved only the clothes on their backs, while library and furniture went up in flames. Scores of our church people are homeless.
Many of them are destitute and must be helped. A majority of our members have lost their business. The well-to-do have become poor and are unable to assist.

"Our church must be rebuilt, and to that end we are bending every energy. In our weakness and suffering, from the depths of despair, we call on all Baptists throughout the country to assist us in rearing a temple to the Lord that his work may be carried on and his name glorified.
Please send your contributions to Dr.
W. A. Hobson, pastor, or to E. E.
Cleveland, chairman board of deacons."

After Man Wanted at Akron.

Boston, Mass., May 13.—Inspectors
A. B. Kelly and Johnson, both of Akron, O., arrived here from the west in search of Joseph Wade. The prisoner still denies his identity, however.
There is trouble over requisition and there may consequently be some delay for the Ohio officers. Inspector Kelley went to Dalton to confer with Governor Crane at his residence in regard to securing requisition papers, but it is doubtful if anything can be done until today or tomorrow.

GAMBLING HOUSE RAIDED AND MANY VICTIMS CAUGHT

Officers Made Best Haul of the Season Sunday Night.

TERRY CARMAN'S POKER ROOM

Was the Scene of the Raid, Which Was Well Carried Out.

INMATES BADLY FRIGHTENED

The Proprietor, With Twelve Others Engaged in the Games, Was Placed Under Arrest—About 30 Spectators Were Present Also.

A gambling house on Midway alley, conducted by Terry Carman, was raided Saturday night at a late hour by Chief Thompson, together with Officers Morris and Dawson. The raid was well planned and successfully carried out, and was the most productive of any in many months past.

For several hours previous to making the "pull," the officers kept a close watch on the place, and when they finally decided to act the gambling tables were in full blast and the room filled with sports of every class. It is estimated that 50 young men were congregated in the place when the officers appeared on the scene, though only 12 of the number were engaged in the games.

The raid was a complete surprise to the gamesters, as not a single one of them had the least inkling of the officers' intentions until the blue coats were in full possession of everything in sight. Pandemonium reigned for a time and several of the "tenderfeet" became weak at the knees; but the proprietor urged the young men to keep cool and gave the assurance they wouldn't be harmed.

Those not engaged in the games were allowed to go, but the players were placed under arrest. The proprietor was also taken into custody. On his promise to put up the necessary cost to liquidate his fine and those of his colleagues, none of the victims were taken to jail. All promised to appear at the mayor's office today for trial.

Following is a list of the names as given to Chief Thompson, several of which are said to be fictitious: Charles McGinnis, James Whiting, Arthur Rogers, Frank Williamson, George Eoff, James Briggs, John McGunnell, William Henry, J. Sigsby, Frank Boyd, George French and Jim Colley.

Many of the gamesters are of prominent family and it was a surprise to the officers to find them in the place.

Shortly before noon today Carman called at the mayor's office and paid a fine of $10 and costs. The others were assessed $6.60 each. All paid up and were allowed to go.

POLICE WERE BUSY

MANY VICTIMS GATHERED IN SUNDAY NIGHT.

Disorderly House at West End Raided, Also a West Market Street Saloon.

Following the raiding of the Midway alley gambling house on Saturday night, the officers, spurred to greater activity by the fruitfulness of the haul made, started in again on Sunday night and made things lively for a time.

Barney Mulrine conducts a saloon on West Market street. The police learned he was dispensing drinks at a time he should have been attending Sunday worship and contrary to the ordinances of the city. Accordingly Chief Thompson, together with Officers Mahoney and Dawson, called at Barney's place of business and took temporary possession.

Mrs. Mulrine was back of the bar, while Joe Cowell and Jack Hausmiller was in front of the counter smacking their lips over large schooners of the amber stuff. The two loiterers were taken to police headquarters, where they put up security for their appearance for trial this evening.

Later in the evening Chief Thompson, together with the entire police force, quietly made their way to the West End, where they swooped down on the disorderly house conducted by Mrs. Nellie Brown. The woman and four of her understudies—Fern Young, Maud Howard, Marie Johnson and Irene McElvay—together with William Hawley, a stranger in the city, were all placed under arrest.

Just as one of the officers started to summon the patrol wagon, the females produced several huge rolls of greenbacks which they turned over to the chief for security for their appearance for trial. The male visitor also put up a gold piece to escape a ride to the jail. The aggregation was instructed to call on Mayor Davidson tonight at 7 o'clock, when he will hear their stories as to how it all happened.

Charles McGavern was arrested Sunday night by Officer Morris. Charley was shamefully soaked with fire water and his cerebrum had become foggy. He was assisted to jail in the patrol and this morning was fined $1 and costs. He was broke and still languishes in jail.

John Brick was found in a box car on the Horn switch Sunday night by Chief Thompson. He was fast asleep and was much surprised when he found himself under arrest. The patrol conveyed him to jail and this morning he was fined $1 and costs. He managed to raise the fine and was released.

Peter Mullen was arrested Saturday evening by Patrolmen Woods and Rose on the charge of petit larceny. The young man was accused of having stolen a quantity of fish from Nisson & Pennybaker's place of business on West Market street.

Mullen was locked up in jail a short time and then taken before Mayor Davidson. He was badly frightened and shed copious tears. On his promise to pay for the stolen fish, the mayor dismissed the young man, after administering an articulated castigation.

Jack Farmer, arrested several days since and later released from jail on his promise to pay his fine, fulfilled his agreement Saturday night, when he called at the mayor's office and turned over the full amount of his assessment.

TAKEN ILL IN CHURCH

MRS. JACOB SHENKEL SEIZED WITH A FAINTING SPELL.

For a Time Her Life Was Despaired Of—Now Out of Danger.

While attending church services at the Methodist Protestant church yesterday morning Mrs. Jacob Shenkel was seized with a fainting spell, and for a time her life was despaired of. She was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Berg, on Jefferson street, and a physician summoned. It was with great difficulty that she was restored, and the lady was unconscious for more than two hours. A carriage was procured, but it was impossible to remove her until late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Shenkel was taken to her home on Basil avenue last evening and is somewhat improved today.

ROUGH PLAY

Causes Painful Injury to Roy Smith, a Klonkide Pottery Workman.

Roy Smith, of Smith's Ferry, met with a painful accident at the Klonkide pottery Saturday. He was wrestling with a fellow workman who seized a polishing knife and struck him on the arm, cutting a large gash. He was taken to the office of a physician, where the injury was dressed.

CHILD CAME NEAR DEATH BY DROWNING

FELL HEAD FIRST INTO A LARGE CAN OF WATER.

When Found the Little One Was Unconscious, But Its Life Was Saved.

A small child of Edgar Thorne, who resides in the Davidson block on Second street, fell into a large can filled with water at noon Sunday and was thought to be dead when found.

The child was playing about the can when it accidentally tripped and stumbled, falling head first into the vessel, which was full to the top with water which had been used for scrubbing. Mr. Thorne discovered the imperiled youngster and when it was drawn out of the water there were no signs of life. The father went for a doctor and then returned home as soon as possible. He stood the child on its head and rubbed its body and by the time the physician arrived the little one was revived to consciousness.

HEAVY FROST

IN SOME SECTIONS OF THE COUNTY LAST NIGHT.

Believed That Fruit Prospects Were Not Greatly Injured By It.

There was a heavy frost throughout the country districts last night, and it may be that a great deal of harm will be done the fruit crop.

The heaviest frost occurred at points north of the city, but it was impossible to determine the extent of the damage, as those spoken to about the frost left their homes so early in the morning that the fruit trees were still covered with the stuff.

However, a number of authorities were consulted, among them being John B. Birch, the fruit tree man, and they say there is no real cause for alarm.

The buds on a great majority of the fruit tree have reached a point so near maturity that it would take a frost much heavier than that of last night to nip them. Another thing that men well versed on these matters give as a reason for thinking the injury will not be great, is the fact that the leaves have come out, and to a certain extent protect the blossoms.

The prospects are good for one of the largest fruit crops in years, and from present indications this will not be confined to any one particular kind of fruit, but will be general.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE?

GERMAN DRAGGED FROM THE RIVER SATURDAY NIGHT.

Believed He Tried to Drown Himself. Was Under Influence of Liquor.

Sunday night a man aged about 40 years, thought to be a German, but whose name was not learned, was dragged from the river near the foot of Union street in a semi-conscious state.

How he got into the water is not known, but it is said he accidentally fell overboard from a shanty boat. Another man, who is supposed to have been a companion of the German, told Officer Stoffard he was drunk and had attempted to suicide. Before the officer could investigate, the man who was rescued had disappeared.

LOCKED IN JAIL

Two Wellsville Men Accused of Attempted Horse Stealing Were Arrested.

It is charged that Andrew McCormick and John Skelley, of Wellsville, boldly attempted to steal a team of fine driving horses and a buggy belonging to Charles McLane, of Irondale, yesterday afternoon.

City Solicitor L. P. Metzger, of Salem, Demands a Jury Trial When His Case Next Comes Up in Probate Court—Columbiana Bank Sale.

Lisbon, May 13.—(Special)—William E. Thompson, of East Liverpool, is a much abused husband, according to his story. He has filed a petition for divorce from his wife, Emma Thompson, alleging that she has neglected him and her home and refused to cook for him. He further declares that she remains away from her home all day and frequently stays out late at night. He claims that she uses most abusive language against him, both on the street and at home. His most serious charge is that she has threatened to poison him. On this account he lives in continuous dread.

Young Crawford had finished his jump and was sitting down when another boy alighted upon his leg, breaking it.

Carl Crawford, son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Clark Crawford, of Jackson street, had his leg broken Saturday night in a very peculiar manner. The lad, in company with several companions, were playing on Jackson street Saturday evening and were engaged in a jumping contest.

Young Crawford had finished his jump and was sitting down when another boy alighted upon his leg, breaking it.

TRADES COUNCIL

IMPORTANT BUSINESS TO COME BEFORE NEXT MEETING.

Standing Committees to Be Appointed Wednesday Evening—Labor Day Picnic.

Trades and Labor Council will meet in regular session on Wednesday night, and in order to start the year in proper shape a great deal of preliminary business will be transacted.

President McLane will appoint a number of standing committees. This is one of the most important matters to be disposed of throughout the year. When it is considered that a vast majority of the questions considered by the council are referred to and gone over by the committees, it can readily be understood how important it is to have the right parties in the right place in the composition of the committees.

The constitution provides for committees on organization, legislation and union labels and each is composed of three members. The committee on grievance and arbitration consists of five members, and it is one of the most important in connection with the organization.

One of the recent amendments to the constitution provides that there shall be a standing committee, whose duty it will be to have charge of and conduct the Labor day picnic, which is always conducted under the auspices of Trades Council.

A COLD BATH

Given a Man Who Tried to Leap from the Ben Hur After She Started.

William Baker received a good ducking at the wharf boat yesterday morning. The Ben Hur was tied in at the wharf, and Baker, with a number of other people, were on the boat. He did not get off when the last bell rang and when it pulled out he attempted to jump to the wharf. He missed his guess and fell into the water.

A number of friends pulled him out at the end of the wharf and he was uninjured save for the bath.

BAPTIST AID ASKED

Brethren in the Fire-Swept City of Jacksonville Sadly in Need of Help.

SCORES REPORTED HOMELESS

Many Destitute—Church Must Be Rebuilt—Baptists Throughout the Country Asked to Assist and Rebuild the First Church.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 13.—The Baptists of Jacksonville Sunday issued the following appeal to the Baptists of America:

"Dear Brethren—Jacksonville, the metropolis and gate city of Florida, is in ruins. The great fire of May 3, the greatest that the New South has ever known, burned 132 blocks in the most thickly settled portion of the city and destroyed every church and every school building in the city proper.

"The First Baptist church, with its contents, was destroyed. Our pastor and family saved only the clothes on their backs, while library and furniture went up in flames. Scores of our church people are homeless. Many of them are destitute and must be helped. A majority of our members have lost their business. The well-to-do have become poor and are unable to assist.

"Our church must be rebuilt, and to that end we are bending every energy. In our weakness and suffering, from the depths of despair, we call on all Baptists throughout the country to assist us in rearing a temple to the Lord that his work may be carried on and his name glorified. Please send your contributions to Dr. W. A. Hooson, pastor, or to E. E. Cleveland, chairman board of deacons."

HELD UP AND ROBBED.

Footpads Relieved Charles Wilson of Bottled Goods Saturday Night.

Charles Wilson, a jiggerman, was held up on Second street at a late hour Saturday night by two unknown footpads, who relieved their victim of a quantity of whisky and beer.

Wilson immediately reported the circumstance to police headquarters, but as he could give no description of the thugs, the officers had no means of bringing the guilty parties to justice.

VIEWS OF A STEEL KING.

Although not every one can be expected to agree with Charles M. Schwab's views, as expressed before the industrial commission on Saturday, as to the utility and public benefits to come from the operation of the great combination of which he is the chief executive officer, his opinions are decidedly interesting and can be read with profit by others besides those engaged in the iron business.

Whether the tendency of the steel combination will be to lower the prices of products and at the same time benefit workingmen, time alone will determine. His statement that the visible supply of iron ore and of coking coal in the United States is so small that, if the consumption of steel continues to increase at the present rate, the ore will be exhausted in 60 years and the coke fields in 30, is a startling one, and will cause grave concern, not only among iron manufacturers, but in the business world in general. Still, it is impossible to believe that the future of the steel industry is as gloomy as this remark would imply. The visible supply is one thing and the resources of nature another. Neither Mr. Schwab nor any other man knows or can know all that the earth conceals in the way of mineral wealth. Discoveries of petroleum, precious metals and other wealth-bringing natural products are constantly being made, even in localities which prospectors of years ago abandoned. Even in the coal fields, it is no rare thing to discover a valuable vein of the black diamond never been suspected even by miners at work in the neighborhood.

It will be hundreds of years certainly before the coal fields are exhausted, and if the Connellsville veins are worked out, as they are likely soon to be, it is by no means improbable that equally valuable coal will be found elsewhere, so that there will be no diminution of the coke output. As for iron ore, it may be necessary to go farther for it, and possibly to utilize ore of an inferior quality, but it is absurd to think that the exhaustion of the Lake Superior mines means the end of American resources in that line.

Interesting as is Mr. Schwab's talk about the iron business, still more so are some of the aphorisms to which he gave utterance in his talk to the commission. Here are samples of them that certainly embody solid chunks of wisdom: "The great captains of industry are not looking for money. There is plenty of that. What they want is brains. The man with exceptional ability is the man for whom everybody is seeking. The country is being ransacked for brains, brains, brains. Opportunities were never so great as they are now for men of brains and energy who are willing to work." If proof of the truth of these assertions is needed, look at Schwab and Carnegie, who were poor men and without prospects at the outset of their phenomenally successful careers. And the country abounds in men whose careers have been almost equally notable, simply because they had brains and used them and their opportunities.

It is safe to say that a good deal of nonsense as well as fiction is being indulged in by the California correspondents who telegraph long stories east regarding alleged jealousy between Governor Nash and President McKinley. Both are men of too many brains and too much experience in public life to entertain any such boyish feelings.

Uncle Russel! Sage remarks that he is making money because other people are fools. There's a lot more men in Uncle Russell's class.

The sudden return of winter weather will probably check untimely attempts to rush the straw hat season.

Brains are sufficient capital, according to the foremost captain of industry, if one knows how to use them.

A GERMAN PLAY

The Local Turners Society Have Adopted a Novel Plan of Entertainment.

An entertainment will be given at Turner hall tonight by the local society, which will be a novelty.

Arrangements have been made to produce a play in the German, and it will be a production showing German farm life. The characters have all been placed in good hands, and the entertainment promises to be a successful affair.

The machinery of a mill that grinds day and night has to shut down now and then for repairs. It is the same way with your nerves. Overwork, close application, our ways of living, bring about nerve waste that sets up symptoms of various kinds. It may be failing strength — weakness — languor — headache — sleeplessness, etc. Whatever it is nerve force is lacking and the means of restoring rests with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. A great many people in East Liverpool vouch for this. Among them is Mr. James Peppin, of No. 302 Third street, East Liverpool, O., who says: "Dr. A. W. ## THE OLDEST MAN WHO GARRIES MAIL

William Scadden, of Chester, Said to Be Entitled to That Distinction.

HAS HAD AN EVENTFUL CAREER

Knew Indians And Was a Pioneer War Experience—Makes Regular Boatman—Fought a Panther—His Trips at the Age of 87.

The oldest mail carrier in the United States is William Scadden. He makes daily trips between East Liverpool and Mercer Postoffice, W. Va. Mercer is an old postoffice around which the new and thriving town of Chester has grown up. Chester is less than two years old, but her mail carrier is almost 87.

Rain or shine, in the heat of summer and in the snows of winter, the aged carrier makes his trips on foot, carrying his mail sack on his back, says the Chronicle Telegraph. The distance is about a mile and the carrier's salary is $125 a year. The remuneration is not large, but the work occupies Mr. Scadden's time for only about an hour a day. He is a veteran of the Civil war, and with a pension of $12 a month and some income from other sources, has ample money for his needs. The old man has carried the mail for three years and has the contract for carrying it for four more. Mr. Scadden is likely to fill out the full time, as he is apparently strong and vigorous. To see him on the street no one would take him to be a day over 60.

Wm Scadden has had an interesting and varied career. His parents were pioneer settlers at the "forks of the Yough" where the city of McKeesport now stands, and had their full share of the hardships of the early days, including several narrow escapes from death at the hands of the Indians. Early in the present century they moved to Frankfort Springs, Beaver county, Pa., where William was born July 4, 1814. Indians were numerous in his boyhood days and he had many acquaintances among them. Mr. Scadden tells an interesting story of a fight between "Bigfoot," an Indian of giant stature, and Adam Poe, a river settler who lived just over the Ohio line in Beaver county, and points out the spot where it occurred. Poe was the largest white man in all the western country. "Bigfoot" had been making raids with his band, and Poe vowed vengeance. One day the two giants met at point opposite Wellsville. The Indian was seated beneath a ledge of rock when Poe came upon him. They fought with nature's weapons, and the contest was a fierce one. "Bigfoot" was getting the better of Poe when a party of the latter's friends came up and interfered. The Indian was killed and the country was rid of a terror.

But farm life in a forest was not altogether to Mr. Scadden's liking, and when about 15 he ran away from home. He soon fell in with some of the crew of the Robert Emmet, a pioneer Ohio river steamer, and obtained a berth on the boat as cabin boy. It was years before his parents ever saw him again, or knew that he was alive. He led a boatman's life for perhaps ten years, rising from the position of cabin boy to that of watchman, and was greatly esteemed and honored by his employers. When he left the boat they presented him with a fine watch and chain. Mr. Scadden's next business venture was to embark in keelboating along with the Poes, his neighbors. Their traffic was between Pittsburgh, Wheeling and Marietta, sometimes extending as far as Cincinnati. The freight charge for goods was 12 1/2 cents hundred from Pittsburgh to Wheeling. The boats were poled, and were difficult to manage. Sometimes on the up trip they were towed by horses. Engaged in this business were Jacob, Adam and Thomas Poe. Out of the profits of keelboating in later years they became steamboat owners.

Mr. Scadden tells of a trip he made to Cincinnati with another lad, accompanying a party of immigrants. The boys were paid off at Cincinnati and started to walk home. They stopped wherever night overtook them. Sometimes they could find a roof to shelter them; oftener they could not. One evening when they were on their travels they were pursued by a large and fierce panther. Knowing that they would be overtaken and killed unless their pursuer was disposed of, they took a stand in an open place and decided to fight. Scadden's companion had a pistol, and both armed themselves with large clubs. When the panther came into view and was stalking upon them, the pistol was fired. It wounded the beast, and also maddened him. He rushed on furiously, and the young men wielded their clubs for their lives. They came out victorious and pursued their journey, leaving the huge animal stretched dead upon the ground.

When the Civil war broke out Scadden, who was then a married man, was living in Meigs county, in this state. He enlisted in Company I, Fifty-third O. V. I., and served through the fierce Shiloh campaign, having many narrow escapes and seeing much hard service. After a year and a half of soldier life he was discharged for physical disability and returned home. All his comrades agree that he was a good soldier. His next war experience was with the Morgan Raiders, 500 of whom camped on his farm in Meigs county, stole his horses and stripped house, barn and farm of everything they fancied. When the raiders left the Scaddens were as destitute as if a cyclone had despoiled their homestead.

Shortly after the war Mr. Scadden came to this county and for a number of years was engaged in farming near Lisbon. Thence he moved to West Virginia, where he has since resided. He is a leading member of the Chester Free Methodist church, which was organized and built largely through his efforts. He gave $400 toward building the church, and is the president of the board of trustees. He is a working member, and whenever money is to be raised he is the man selected for the task. Mr. Scadden believes in work, and says he expects to work as long as he lives.

His wife, whose maiden name was Anna Beard, died a few years ago at the age of 81, after 60 years of happy married life. One daughter, Mrs. Lyman Lamron, of East Liverpool, is their only child. Mr. Scadden has seven grandchildren and makes his home with one of them. He has hosts of friends and is widely known.

The foregoing article was published under an East Liverpool date, in the Pittsburg Chronicle Telegraph of last Friday. The cut is reproduced in these columns by courtesy of that paper.

EAST END.

ITALIANS' WASHING

Scattered to the Four Winds By a Violent Windstorm on Sunday.

The Italians who reside in the shanty on the hill above the Smith addition furnished considerable amusement for pedestrians on upper Pennsylvania avenue yesterday. The dark-skinned wanderers from the sunny land always do their washing on Sunday. Yesterday they had just finished their work and had hung the garments out to dry when a windstorm came up and a large beach tree near the shanty was blown down. It barely missed the shanty and fell directly across the clothes line.

The line was broken and the garments were scattered far and wide over the hillside. In gathering these up the Italians gave an exhibition of sprinting that perhaps excelled anything in this line ever seen among Italians in this city. No fights occurred, but loud words were plentiful, and if they had talked English they would doubtless have been arrested on a charge of profanity.

CHICKEN THIEVES

Made a Successful Raid on the Poultry Yard of Michael Stilwell.

Michael Stilwell, of Calhoun addition, was visited by thieves Saturday night. They stole eight fancy chickens and several valuable articles from his hen house and were evidently only beginning business when a neighbor discovered them and reported to Stilwell. The thieves, however, made good their escape.

Mr. Stilwell thinks that the thieves were people who don't live far away and are desirous of starting into the poultry business themselves. He is trying to gather a little evidence and hopes to locate the guilty party.

EAST END GIRLS' CLUB.

One of Its Objects Is to Divide Important Secrets.

The latest thing in the way of a society club to be formed in the East End is the T. G. G. club, which is composed of girls about 15 years of age. These young misses have so many secrets in common that they find it necessary to meet once every week and "unload." After the unloading is done they spend the remaining hours of the evening at games and luncheons.

The first meeting of this club was held last Friday evening. After electing officers the young ladies passed the evening at a "flower" game, two prizes being offered for the ladies who could guess the names of the largest number of flowers, after examining the blossoms separately. Miss Mary Duncan drew the first prize and Miss Kate Stamm the second. Their next meeting will be held at the Stamm residence next Friday night.

A Nail Through His Hand.

Alf McKinnon is suffering from a painful wound, the result of an accident in which a rusty nail was forced almost through his hand. The member is badly swollen and inflamed and it is possible that blood poison may result. He will be unable to be at work for some time.

Coon Goodballet and William Podmore, who were fishing at Beaver creek Saturday, report that they caught a 30-pound catfish near the mouth of the creek.

It is reported that the frost last night did considerable damage to the fruit in the river valley.

VIEWS OF A STEEL KING.

Although not every one can be expected to agree with Charles M. Schwab's views, as expressed before the industrial commission on Saturday, as to the utility and public benefits to come from the operation of the great combination of which he is the chief executive officer, his opinions are decidedly interesting and can be read with profit by others besides those engaged in the iron business.

Whether the tendency of the steel combination will be to lower the prices of products and at the same time benefit workingmen, time alone will determine. His statement that the visible supply of iron ore and of coking coal in the United States is so small that, if the consumption of steel continues to increase at the present rate, the ore will be exhausted in 60 years and the coke fields in 30, is a startling one, and will cause grave concern, not only among iron manufacturers, but in the business world in general. Still, it is impossible to believe that the future of the steel industry is as gloomy as this remark would imply. The visible supply is one thing and the resources of nature another. Neither Mr. Schwab nor any other man knows or can know all that the earth conceals in the way of mineral wealth. Discoveries of petroleum, precious metals and other wealth-bringing natural products are constantly being made, even in localities which prospectors of years ago abandoned. Even in the coal fields, it is no rare thing to discover a valuable vein of the black diamond never been suspected even by miners never been inspected even by miners at work in the neighborhood.

It will be hundreds of years certainly before the coal fields are exhausted, and if the Connellsville veins are worked out, as they are likely soon to be, it is by no means improbable that equally valuable coal will be found elsewhere, so that there will be no diminution of the coke output. As for iron ore, it may be necessary to go farther for it, and possibly to utilize ore of an inferior quality, but it is absurd to think that the exhaustion of the Lake Superior mines means the end of American resources in that line.

Interesting as is Mr. Schwab's talk about the iron business, still more so are some of the aphorisms to which he gave utterance in his talk to the commission. Here are samples of them that certainly embody solid chunks of wisdom: "The great captains of industry are not looking for money. There is plenty of that. What they want is brains. The man with exceptional ability is the man for whom everybody is seeking. The country is being ransacked for brains, brains, brains. Opportunities were never so great as they are now for men of brains and energy who are willing to work." If proof of the truth of these assertions is needed, look at Schwab and Carnegie, who were poor men and without prospects at the outset of their phenomenally successful careers. And the country abounds in men whose careers have been almost equally notable, simply because they had brains and used them and their opportunities.

It is safe to say that a good deal of nonsense as well as fiction is being indulged in by the California correspondents who telegraph long stories east regarding alleged jealousy between Governor Nash and President McKinley. Both are men of too many brains and too much experience in public life to entertain any such boyish feelings.

Uncle Russell Sage remarks that he is making money because other people are fools. There's a lot more men in Uncle Russell's class.

The sudden return of winter weather will probably check untimely attempts to rush the straw hat season.

Brains are sufficient capital, according to the foremost captain of industry, if one knows how to use them.

BAPTIST AID ASKED

Brethren in the Fire-Swept City of Jacksonville Sadly in Need of Help.

SCORES REPORTED HOMELESS

Many Destitute—Church Must Be Rebuilt—Baptists Throughout the Country Asked to Assist and Rebuild the First Church.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 13.—The Baptists of Jacksonville Sunday issued the following appeal to the Baptists of America:

"Dear Brethren—Jacksonville, the metropolis and gate city of Florida, is in ruins. The great fire of May 3, the greatest that the New South has ever known, burned 132 blocks in the most thickly settled portion of the city and destroyed every church and every school building in the city proper.

"The First Baptist church, with its contents, was destroyed. Our pastor and family saved only the clothes on their backs, while library and furniture went up in flames. Scores of our church people are homeless. Many of them are destitute and must be helped. A majority of our members have lost their business. The well-to-do have become poor and are unable to assist.

"Our church must be rebuilt, and to that end we are bending every energy. In our weakness and suffering, from the depths of despair, we call on all Baptists throughout the country to assist us in rearing a temple to the Lord that his work may be carried on and his name glorified. Please send your contributions to Dr. W. A. Hobson, pastor, or to E. E. Cleveland, chairman board of deacons."

HELD UP AND ROBBED.

Footpads Relieved Charles Wilson of Bottled Goods Saturday Night.

Charles Wilson, a jiggerman, was held up on Second street at a late hour Saturday night by two unknown footpads, who relieved their victim of a quantity of whisky and beer.

Wilson immediately reported the circumstance to police headquarters, but as he could give no description of the thugs, the officers had no means of bringing the guilty parties to justice.

After Man Wanted at Akron.

Boston, Mass., May 13.—Inspectors A. B. Kelly and Johnson, both of Akron, O., arrived here from the west in search of Joseph Wade. The prisoner still denies his identity, however. There is trouble over requisition and there may consequently be some delay for the Ohio officers. Inspector Kelly went to Dalton to confer with Governor Crane at his residence in regard to securing requisition papers, but it is doubtful if anything can be done until today or tomorrow.

MRS. M'KINLEY ILL

Wife of President Taken to San Francisco for Much Needed Rest.

The President May Join the Party at San Jose Today—Besides Her Illness, Mrs. McKinley Has a Badly Effected Finger.

San Francisco, May 13.—A special train bearing President and Mrs. McKinley, Miss Barber, Dr. Rixey, Secretary Cortelyou and Henry T. Scott arrived Sunday afternoon from Delmonte. Mrs. McKinley was brought here by the president in advance of the regular program, that she may obtain complete rest. Upon arrival here the president and party were driven to the residence of Henry T. Scott, which they will occupy during their stay here.

Her condition is said not to be alarming, but she has not been well since the long journey began, and the trip has fatigued her very much. Saturday night she did not respond to medical treatment, and both the president and Dr. Rixey considered it wise to take her to San Francisco, where she could have complete rest for a few days at Mr. Scott's residence, and where Dr. Hirschfelter, Mr. Scott's physician, could be consulted if necessary.

President May Join Them Today.

The cabinet and other members of the party were to carry out the program as arranged, going to San Jose today and arriving at San Francisco on Tuesday. The understanding was that the president will rejoin the party at San Jose if Mrs. McKinley's condition permits. Dr. Rixey said Mrs. McKinley was much better Sunday than she had been Saturday night.

Mrs. McKinley bruised her hand while the train was rounding a sharp curve in Sunday's trip and she suffered considerably from the bruise since. Her delicate health has aggravated the injury and Dr. Rixey was twice compelled to lance it. The lancing relieved her very much for the time being.

Only a few hundred people greeted the president upon his arrival in this city. The president, in order to avoid the crowd that was expected to assemble at the Southern Pacific depot at Third and Townsend streets, left the train with his little party at Valencia street, a station in the southern part of the city. When the train, consisting of a baggage car and the president's special coach, stopped at Valencia street, Mrs. McKinley was carried in a steamer chair by two colored porters from the private car to a closed carriage in waiting. She was heavily veiled and the president and Dr. Rixey followed close behind. Mrs. McKinley was gently placed in the carriage and the president and Dr. Rixey took seats in the same vehicle. The president was quite pale and looked serious. The rest of the party followed in carriages. Mr. and Mrs. Scott had arrived at their residence ahead of the president and were waiting to receive their distinguished guests. Mrs. McKinley was again lifted out of the carriage and placed in an invalid chair and carried into the house.

Secretary Cortelyou, when questioned concerning Mrs. McKinley's condition, stated that there was nothing alarming in her present indisposition and that perfect quiet and rest for a few days would restore her to her usual health. It was the impression, however, of those who saw Mrs. McKinley that she is very ill and that her present state may result in an entire change of the president's program.

Should his wife's health improve the president, it was expected, will carry out his intention to attend the celebration at San Jose today. If, however, her condition today shall be no better than Sunday, the president, it was expected, would not leave his wife's side, but would allow the cabinet officers and others of his party to represent him at San Jose.

About 6 o'clock last night Dr. Rixey made the following statement:

Mrs. McKinley Stood Trip Well.

Mrs. McKinley stood the trip from Delmonte much better than expected. Her condition is not serious. She will stay here at least a week and have perfect rest. I think by that time she will be able to continue the journey. She has been gaining strength all afternoon."

Delmonte, Cal., May 13.—Mrs. McKinley's illness cast a shadow on the other members of the party who remained here, and there was talk at first of abandoning the entire schedule between here and San Francisco, but Mrs. McKinley especially requested that the plans of the party should not be disarranged by her departure, and when the president left Sunday morning the understanding was that the program originally fixed should be carried out. The president has himself said he would rejoin the party as soon as Mrs. McKinley shall be made comfortable.

The party was scheduled to leave here this morning, and after about a 10-minute stop at Pajaro, they would go to Santa Cruz for a glimpse of the big trees. It was not the expectation of the president that he could be at either of these places, but he thought he could meet the cabinet at San Jose, where great preparations have been made to receive him, and where the program was for the party to spend tonight. In that case he could enter San Francisco tomorrow afternoon, as originally contemplated, without disarranging the plans for the ovation arranged for him there. It is possible that Mrs. McKinley's condition, if it shall not improve as rapidly as hoped, may necessitate a curtailment of the program in San Francisco, and for the remainder of the trip.

The day after leaving New Orleans a bone felon appeared upon Mrs. McKinley's finger. Her hand became swollen and gave her considerable pain, and produced fever, that prevented her from sleeping. Dr. Rixey twice lanced the felon and gave her some relief in that way. Mrs. McKinley bore it bravely and urged that the program at the cities and towns should not be modified in any particular on her account.

It was hoped that the rest here would do her good, but she slept little Saturday night, and Sunday morning, although her condition had improved, she reluctantly agreed to go to San Francisco at once. The party got away from the hotel so quietly that many of the guests did not know until evening that the President and Mrs. McKinley had gone.

Delmonte, Cal., May 13.—Owing to the state of Mrs. McKinley's health, the president and Mrs. McKinley, accompanied by Dr. Rixey and Miss Barber, the president's niece, left for San Francisco about 11:30 o'clock Sunday. They will go to the residence of Henry T. Scott there, and it is hoped that the complete rest will have a beneficial effect upon Mrs. McKinley. Her condition is said not to be alarming, but she is worn out by her long journey, and it was considered wise to take her to San Francisco, where she could have proper nursing and where specialists could be consulted if necessary.

The program for the party between here and San Francisco will be carried out as originally planned, and the president expects to be able to rejoin the party at San Jose this afternoon if Mrs. McKinley's condition warrants it.

BOOK ON AGRICULTURE.

Year Book of Department May Be Ready About July 1.

Washington, May 13.—The year book of the United States department of agriculture for 1900 is now in press and will be ready for distribution about July 1. In addition to the report of the secretary and the appendix, this volume contains 31 articles, in which each division of original work is represented. A new feature is the publication of requirements for admission to the agricultural department of the land colleges, and the cost of attendance.

The year book is a volume of 888 pages, illustrated with a frontispiece, 87 plates, of which nine are colored and 88 text figures. The regular edition is 500,000 copies, of which 470,000 are by law reserved for the exclusive use of congress, and 30,000 for the department. All others than crop correspondents must apply to their senators or representatives in congress.

The articles include: "Smyrna Fig Culture in the United States," "Amplification of Weather Forecasts," "Commercial Plant Introduction," "Forest Extension in the Middle West," "Influence of Rye on the Price of Wheat," "Mountain Roads," "Fungous Diseases of Forest Trees," "Rabies," "The Scale Insect and Mite Enemies of Citrus Trees," "How Birds Affect the Orchard," "Hot Waves," "Potatoes as Food," "Practical Forestry in the Southern Appalachians," "Commercial Pear Culture," "Development of the Trucking Interests," "The Date Palm," "Practical Irrigation," "Free Delivery of Rural Mails," "Successful Wheat Growing in Semi-arid Districts."

MARTINELLI CELEBRATED MASS

Papal Messenger Stood Close to Him During Service.

Washington, May 13.—Cardinal Martinelli celebrated pontifical high mass Sunday at St. Aloysius church. The edifice was thronged, many Catholic clergymen attending to hear his eminence at his first mass since his elevation to the cardinalate. The cardinal was robed in black, with an almost invisible red border. He wore the red beretta. Count Colacicchi, the papal messenger, stood throughout the services, arrayed in his brilliant uniform, always close to the cardinal.

More than 1,000 electric lights beamed in the church, making the scene one of great beauty. The sermon was delivered by Rev. William O'Brien Pardon, formerly provincial of the Society of Jesus.

VIEWS OF A STEEL KING.

Although not every one can be expected to agree with Charles M. Schwab's views, as expressed before the industrial commission on Saturday, as to the utility and public benefits to come from the operation of the great combination of which he is the chief executive officer, his opinions are decidedly interesting and can be read with profit by others besides those engaged in the iron business.

Whether the tendency of the steel combination will be to lower the prices of products and at the same time benefit workingmen, time alone will determine. His statement that the visible supply of iron ore and of coking coal in the United States is so small that, if the consumption of steel continues to increase at the present rate, the ore will be exhausted in 60 years and the coke fields in 30, is a startling one, and will cause grave concern, not only among iron manufacturers, but in the business world in general. Still, it is impossible to believe that the future of the steel industry is as gloomy as this remark would imply. The visible supply is one thing and the resources of nature another. Neither Mr. Schwab nor any other man knows or can know all that the earth conceals in the way of mineral wealth. Discoveries of petroleum, precious metals and other wealth-bringing natural products are constantly being made, even in localities which prospectors of years ago abandoned. Even in the coal fields, it is no rare thing to discover a valuable vein of the black diamond, never been suspected even by miners never been inspected even by miners at work in the neighborhood.

It will be hundreds of years certainly before the coal fields are exhausted, and if the Connellsville veins are worked out, as they are likely soon to be, it is by no means improbable that equally valuable coal will be found elsewhere, so that there will be no diminution of the coke output. As for iron ore, it may be necessary to go farther for it, and possibly to utilize ore of an inferior quality, but it is absurd to think that the exhaustion of the Lake Superior mines means the end of American resources in that line.

Interesting as is Mr. Schwab's talk about the iron business, still more so are some of the aphorisms to which he gave utterance in his talk to the commission. Here are samples of them that certainly embody solid chunks of wisdom: "The great captains of industry are not looking for money. There is plenty of that. What they want is brains. The man with exceptional ability is the man for whom everybody is seeking. The country is being ransacked for brains, brains, brains. Opportunities were never so great as they are now for men of brains and energy who are willing to work." If proof of the truth of these assertions is needed, look at Schwab and Carnegie, who were poor men and without prospects at the outset of their phenomenally successful careers. And the country abounds in men whose careers have been almost equally notable, simply because they had brains and used them and their opportunities.

It is safe to say that a good deal of nonsense as well as fiction is being indulged in by the California correspondents who telegraph long stories east regarding alleged jealousy between Governor Nash and President McKinley. Both are men of too many brains and too much experience in public life to entertain any such boyish feelings.

Uncle Russell Sage remarks that he is making money because other people are fools. There's a lot more men in Uncle Russell's class.

The sudden return of winter weather will probably check untimely attempts to rush the straw hat season.

Brains are sufficient capital, according to the foremost captain of industry, if one knows how to use them.

Ever on the Alert—Alive to Every Form of Oppression—Kept on Edge Burdened Beyond Endurance. Nerves Give Out.

The machinery of a mill that grinds day and night has to shut down now and then for repairs. It is the same way with your nerves. Overwork, close application, our ways of living, bring about nerve waste that sets up symptoms of various kinds. It may be failing strength — weakness — languor — headache — sleeplessness, etc. Whatever it is nerve force is lacking and the means of restoring rests with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. A great many people in East Liverpool vouch for this. Among them is Mr. James Peppin, of No. 302 Third street, East Liverpool, O., who says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market street, are a fine nerve tonic. As a result of hard work I was generally debilitated — nervous and could not sleep. I needed rebuilding and found in the Nerve Pills the medicine needed. They have the power to steady and strengthen the nerves — give restful sleep and general vigor to the system at large."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box, also Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment at 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

MRS. M'KINLEY ILL

Wife of President Taken to San Francisco for Much Needed Rest.

The President May Join the Party at San Jose Today—Besides Her Illness, Mrs. McKinley Has a Badly Effected Finger.

San Francisco, May 13.—A special train bearing President and Mrs. McKinley, Miss Barber, Dr. Rixey, Secretary Cortelyou and Henry T. Scott, arrived Sunday afternoon from Delmonte. Mrs. McKinley was brought here by the president in advance of the regular program, that she may obtain complete rest. Upon arrival here the president and party were driven to the residence of Henry T. Scott, which they will occupy during their stay here.

Her condition is said not to be alarming, but she has not been well since the long journey began, and the trip has fatigued her very much. Saturday night she did not respond to medical treatment, and both the president and Dr. Rixey considered it wise to take her to San Francisco, where she could have complete rest for a few days at Mr. Scott's residence, and where Dr. Hirschfelter, Mr. Scott's physician, could be consulted if necessary.

President May Join Them Today.

The cabinet and other members of the party were to carry out the program as arranged, going to San Jose today and arriving at San Francisco on Tuesday. The understanding was that the president will rejoin the party at San Jose if Mrs. McKinley's condition permits. Dr. Rixey said Mrs. McKinley was much better Sunday than she had been Saturday night.

Mrs. McKinley bruised her hand while the train was rounding a sharp curve in Sunday's trip and she suffered considerably from the bruise since. Her delicate health has aggravated the injury and Dr. Rixey was twice compelled to lance it. The lancing relieved her very much for the time being.

Only a few hundred people greeted the president upon his arrival in this city. The president, in order to avoid the crowd that was expected to assemble at the Southern Pacific depot, at Third and Townsend streets, left the train with his little party at Valencia street, a station in the southern part of the city. When the train, consisting of a baggage car and the president's special coach, stopped at Valencia street, Mrs. McKinley was carried in a steamer chair by two colored porters from the private car to a closed carriage in waiting. She was heavily veiled and the president and Dr. Rixey followed close behind. Mrs. McKinley was gently placed in the carriage and the president and Dr. Rixey took seats in the same vehicle. The president was quite pale and looked serious. The rest of the party followed in carriages. Mr. and Mrs. Scott had arrived at their residence ahead of the president and were waiting to receive their distinguished guests. Mrs. McKinley was again lifted out of the carriage and placed in an invalid chair and carried into the house.

Secretary Cortelyou, when questioned concerning Mrs. McKinley's condition, stated that there was nothing alarming in her present indisposition and that perfect quiet and rest for a few days would restore her to her usual health. It was the impression, however, of those who saw Mrs. McKinley that she is very ill and that her present state may result in an entire change of the president's program.

Should his wife's health improve the president, it was expected, will carry out his intention to attend the celebration at San Jose today. If, however, her condition today shall be no better than Sunday, the president, it was expected, would not leave his wife's side, but would allow the cabinet officers and others of his party to represent him at San Jose.

About 6 o'clock last night Dr. Rixey made the following statement:

Mrs. McKinley Stood Trip Well.

"Mrs. McKinley stood the trip from Delmonte much better than I expected. Her condition is not serious. She will stay here at least a week and have perfect rest. I think by that time she will be able to continue the journey. She has been gaining strength all afternoon."

Delmonte, Cal., May 13.—Mrs. McKinley's illness cast a shadow on the other members of the party who remained here, and there was talk at first of abandoning the entire schedule between here and San Francisco, but Mrs. McKinley especially requested that the plans of the party should not be disarranged by her departure, and when the president left Sunday morning the understanding was that the program originally fixed should be carried out. The president has himself said he would rejoin the party as soon as Mrs. McKinley shall be made comfortable.

The party was scheduled to leave here this morning, and after about a 10-minute stop at Pajaro, they would go to Santa Cruz for a glimpse of the big trees. It was not the expectation of the president that he could be at either of these places, but he thought he could meet the cabinet at San Jose, where great preparations have been made to receive him, and where the program was for the party to spend tonight. In that case he could enter San Francisco tomorrow afternoon, as originally contemplated, without disarranging the plans for the ovation arranged for him there. It is possible that Mrs. McKinley's condition, if it shall not improve as rapidly as hoped, may necessitate a curtailment of the program in San Francisco, and for the remainder of the trip.

The day after leaving New Orleans a bone felon appeared upon Mrs. McKinley's finger. Her hand became swollen and gave her considerable pain, and produced fever, that prevented her from sleeping. Dr. Rixey twice lanced the felon and gave her some relief in that way. Mrs. McKinley bore it bravely and urged that the program at the cities and towns should not be modified in any particular on her account.

It was hoped that the rest here would do her good, but she slept little Saturday night, and Sunday morning, although her condition had improved, she reluctantly agreed to go to San Francisco at once. The party got away from the hotel so quietly that many of the guests did not know until evening that the President and Mrs. McKinley had gone.

Delmonte, Cal., May 13.—Owing to the state of Mrs. McKinley's health, the president and Mrs. McKinley, accompanied by Dr. Rixey and Miss Barber, the president's niece, left for San Francisco about 11:30 o'clock Sunday. They will go to the residence of Henry T. Scott there, and it is hoped that the complete rest will have a beneficial effect upon Mrs. McKinley. Her condition is said not to be alarming, but she is worn out by her long journey, and it was considered wise to take her to San Francisco, where she could have proper nursing and where specialists could be consulted if necessary.

The program for the party between here and San Francisco will be carried out as originally planned, and the president expects to be able to rejoin the party at San Jose this afternoon if Mrs. McKinley's condition warrants it.

BOOK ON AGRICULTURE.

Year Book of Department May Be Ready About July 1.

Washington, May 13.—The year book of the United States department of agriculture for 1900 is now in press and will be ready for distribution about July 1. In addition to the report of the secretary and the appendix, this volume contains 31 articles, in which each division of original work is represented. A new feature is the publication of requirements for admission to the agricultural department of the land colleges, and the cost of attendance.

The year book is a volume of 888 pages, illustrated with a frontispiece, 87 plates, of which nine are colored and 88 text figures. The regular edition is 500,000 copies, of which 470,000 are by law reserved for the exclusive use of congress, and 30,000 for the department. All others than crop correspondents must apply to their senators or representatives in congress.

The articles include: "Smyrna Fig Culture in the United States," "Amplification of Weather Forecasts," "Commercial Plant Introduction," "Forest Extension in the Middle West," "Influence of Rye on the Price of Wheat," "Mountain Roads," "Fungous Diseases of Forest Trees," "Rabies," "The Scale Insect and Mite Enemies of Citrus Trees," "How Birds Affect the Orchard," "Hot Waves," "Potatoes as Food," "Practical Forestry in the Southern Appalachians," "Commercial Pear Culture," "Development of the Trucking Interests," "The Date Palm," "Practical Irrigation," "Free Delivery of Rural Mails," "Successful Wheat Growing in Semi-arid Districts."

MARTINELLI CELEBRATED MASS

Papal Messenger Stood Close to Him During Service.

Washington, May 13.—Cardinal Martinelli celebrated pontifical high mass Sunday at St. Aloysius church. The edifice was thronged, many Catholic clergymen attending to hear his elevation to the cardinalate. The cardinal was robed in black, with an almost invisible red border. He wore the red beretta. Count Colacicchi, the papal messenger, stood throughout the services, arrayed in his brilliant uniform, always close to the cardinal.

More than 1,000 electric lights beamed in the church, making the scene one of great beauty. The sermon was delivered by Rev. William O'Brien Pardon, formerly provincial of the Society of Jesus.

STRUCK BY A CAR

A Wagon Loaded With Young People Wrecked in a Collision Near New York.

TWO PERSONS WERE KILLED

Five Placed in a Hospital—Others Had Wounds Dressed and Also Others Bruised—A Street Car Ran Away—One Person May Die.

New York, May 13.—Of 26 young people who started from College Point, L. I., on what is locally known as a "star light" ride, two were carried home dead, five are in the hospital, four were allowed to leave the hospital after having their wounds dressed, and every one of the remainder were more or less bruised. A collision with a trolley car caused the accident. The dead are Michael Schneir and Joseph Pickel.

The merry makers were on their way to a hotel 10 miles away, where they were to have a dance. They were all in one wagon, the bottom of which had been filled with straw. It was almost midnight when they reached Distler's hotel, on the edge of Jamaica. When in front of the house the driver of the wagon tried to cross the tracks of a trolley line in front of an approaching car, but the car struck the rear end of the wagon. The vehicle was demolished. Pickel was hurled into the air and fell 30 feet away, his head striking a fire hydrant. Schneir was also thrown into the air and landed head first on the macadam pavement. Both died in a short time.

Miss Mattie Debovis sustained a severe contusion of the chest and hips, and was the worst hurt among the injured. The car itself was badly wrecked, but none of the 25 passengers was injured.

The motorman was arrested, though claiming to be without blame in the matter.

New York, May 13.—An open trolley car, on which were packed about 115 persons, got away from the motorman Sunday near Fort Lee, N. J., and dashed down Leonia hill. Every person on the car was bruised, three were seriously hurt and only one of them is likely to die. Frank Sunstruck, the conductor, it is feared, may lose his life on account of possible internal injuries, and J. F. Robinson and his wife, of this city, are the two others who were seriously hurt.

The heavily loaded car had started down an incline a quarter of a mile in length, when the motorman lost control. It was so fast no one dared to jump off. The road is a winding one. At the foot of the hill it curves sharply.

When the front trucks hit the curve they started around it and made it. The rear ones followed part of the way. The wrench upon the car, however, as it swung about, was so great that the body was lifted and torn from the trucks and rolled over and bit the ground.

The passengers were caught in and under the car and were piled in a heap.

ATLAS LINE SOLD.

Hamburg-American Company Closes Important Deal—Now Largest in World.

New York, May 13.—The announcement was made that the Hamburg-American line has acquired the Atlas steamship line, which for about the past 30 years has plied between Jamaica, Haiti and Central America. The Atlas line was formerly owned by an English corporation, but under the Hamburg-American line will fly the German flag.

This addition to the service makes the Hamburg-American steamship line the largest in the world, the entire tonnage being 630,000 tons, which is divided among 120 vessels, sailing in 30 different services. By its acquisition of the Atlas line it has gained seven new steamers of an average tonnage of 3,000.

Emil L. Boas, general manager for North America of the Hamburg-American line, admitted that the Atlas line had been acquired by his company, the deal having been consummated the latter part of the week. He said that the company intended greatly improving the service on the Atlas line and that he expected in the near future several new and modern vessels would be built for the South American service. The Atlas fleet consists of the steamships Altai, Alps, Althos, Allegheny, Adirondack, Andes and Alene. It was said about $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 was paid.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

Once a week or oftener the NEWS REVIEW will publish a department of lodge news. Officers and members of the various orders are invited to contribute. The name and address of the writer must accompany every communication.

The Modern Woodmen of America, at their meeting Wednesday evening, transacted routine business and balloted on three new new candidates. They will be initiated at the meeting of the order on Wednesday, May 22.

The Woodmen of the World held a special meeting Wednesday evening and initiated 16 new members. The order at this meeting commenced making arrangements for the unveiling of monuments, which will be held soon.

The degree team of Pride of the East council No. 8, Jr. O. U. A. M., will go to Toronto tomorrow evening for a visit to Toronto council No. 10, and they will initiate several new candidates.

The Daughters of Rebekah will give a musicale and social in I. O. O. F. hall tomorrow evening. They have secured Miss Eva Dunning, a noted elocutionist of Columbus, and also considerable home talent. A good time is expected.

The Daughters of America, at their meeting Wednesday evening, received six new applications for membership. They will be initiated at their meeting next Wednesday evening. The committees appointed to make arrangements for the entertainment of the state council of the order to be held in this city in September, reported that arrangements are complete in every detail.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle, at their meeting last Tuesday evening, received two new applications for membership and action will be taken on them at their meeting tomorrow night. They also decided on their annual picnic and reunion, which will be held at Cascade Park July 27. All orders from eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania will be in attendance at the reunion.

The Ladies of the Golden Eagle, at their last meeting, entertained a number of Pride of the East Temple No. 21, of Lisbon. The following were present: Mrs. Bert Gamble, Mrs. John Edwards, Mrs. J. O. Morrow, Mrs. James Henderson, Misses Laura Hoopes, Etta Dick, Sarah Davis and John Strouges, Harry Paisley, Ed Nicholson and John Davis. The Pride of the East Temple brought two new candidates with them and they were initiated here, after which refreshments were served and those present enjoyed themselves until an early hour Saturday morning.

At the meeting of the subordinate lodge of Odd Fellows tonight two candidates will be given the first degree. A report will also be heard from the committee in charge of the picnic scheduled for June 5. Prospects are good for a very large attendance at this gathering, as encouraging reports have been received from a large number of sister lodges. The canton has decided to take an active part in the affair, and with that end in view has arranged for the entertainment of members of the Patriarchs Militant, from Pittsburg, Allegheny, Steubenville, Salem, Lisbon, Canton, Massillon and other points. A part of the day's entertainment will consist of an exhibition drill by this branch of the order. Two hundred invitations have been issued to the present, and more will be added with in the next week.

Two candidates will be taken into the camp at the meeting Wednesday evening, and one applicant will be shown the mysteries of the canton.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

Wanted — a Game — The Century base ball club would like to have a game with the West End Rovers at an early date as possible for love or money.

S. P. A. Club Ball — The S. P. A. club will hold a dance at Rock Springs park tomorrow evening. The music will be furnished by an Italian orchestra.

Sixty at First Communion — Yesterday morning at St. Aloysius church at high mass at 8 o'clock 60 children took first communion. They also took renewal of baptism vows, pledged until 21 and were invested with the scapular of Mt. Carmel.

Ill in New York — Ed Way, eastern representative, of the R. Thomas & Sons Co., of this city, is seriously ill at his home in New York city. Mr. Way formerly conducted a store here and was well and favorably known.

Wire Broke — A dead electric wire crossing Market street, between Third and Fourth, broke and fell Sunday afternoon and frightened a number of pedestrians who were in close proximity and who supposed the wire was charged. A motorman removed the obstruction.

Horse Fell on the Street — A horse driven by Attorney F. E. Grosshans fell at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets last evening and sustained several severe bruises about the head and fore legs. Mr. Grosshans was thrown from the buggy, but was not injured.

Will Meet Wednesday — The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet in regular session Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This will be the first held since the time of meeting was changed from Saturday to Wednesday.

Comers and Goers — The following movings were handled at the freight station today: Charles Debee, to Sebring; John H. Litmer, to Canton; Joseph Kenyon, to Massillon; Jacob Reiss, to Dennison. The goods of A. Bowman, from East Palestine, and of J. Levellara, from New Castle, were received.

Spoke at the Presbyterian Church — Rev. James Hedges, of Kenwick, Idaho, and Rev. James Hays, a native Nez Perces Indian, who have been spending a few days in this city, will leave tomorrow morning for Philadelphia, where they will attend the meeting of the general assembly. The reverend gentlemen addressed the congregation of the First Presbyterian church last evening and made a deep impression.

Taken to Hospital — James Moore left for Pittsburg Sunday afternoon on the steamer Keystone State, in company with Aaron Guthrie and H. P. McNicol. Mr. Moore was taken to a hospital at the Smoky City to undergo treatment for heart trouble. Only a short while ago he returned home from that institution after having spent several weeks there. His health was temporarily benefited, but his condition rapidly became worse, thus necessitating his return to the hospital.

STILL AGGRESSIVE

The Papers Authorizing the Stock Company Among Striking Plumbers Will Arrive Soon.

The headquarters of the striking plumbers is still open, and is a very popular resort for them, at least once a day, as they are required to register each day in order to draw their strike benefits.

The movement to organize a stock company gives promise of reaching a successful consummation. The license and returns from the bond required by law were expected to arrive Saturday, but have not yet been received. Just as soon as this is heard from no time will be lost in electing officers and getting matters in shape for doing work.

There is no change in the situation as far as the strike is concerned, and the men are more determined than ever to win. Some of the strikers are doing considerable work about the city, and are experiencing very little difficulty in the matter of securing supplies, as those of the firms who signed the scale are lending whatever assistance they can to the men.

SOUTH SIDE.

NOT SUSTAINED

The Charge of Theft Brought Against William Glendenning Unsubstantiated.

The case of George Conn against William Glendenning was heard in Justice Johnston's court Saturday afternoon. Conn alleged that Glendenning had stolen tools from the T. L. & S. pottery. Conn failed to sustain the charge and the evidence seemed to indicate very poor ground for bringing the action.

The facts brought out showed that Conn had found a shovel which he claimed belonged to him, on the river shore near Glendenning's boat house. According to Glendenning, Conn accused him of stealing the shovel and started to take it back to the pottery. Glendenning interfered and Conn brought the action as the result. The case was dismissed at the expense of the plaintiff, and the shovel still remains on the river shore without a claimant.

FELL FROM A HAND CAR.

Thomas Kinney Badly Bruised in an Accident Saturday

Thomas Kinney fell from a rapidly moving hand car near Newell's station Saturday evening and was severely injured. An ankle was sprained and he was badly bruised. He also received internal injuries that may prove serious. He was taken to his home in Chester, where he will be laid up for some time.

Williams-Wallace.

William Wallace, of Uhrichsville, O., and Miss Pearl Williams, of Chester, were married at the bride's home at 11 o'clock this morning. Rev. H. M. Carnahan performed the ceremony. The happy couple left for a short honeymoon, after which they will reside at Uhrichsville.

CHESTER NEWS.

J. B. Pierce and G. A. Arner will go to Pittsburg on business tomorrow.

The final test of the roller coaster was made Saturday evening and everything ran very smoothly. A number of people were riding today.

Denies That He Is Married.

John Cunningham denies the report that he and Mrs. Ollie Jackson were married Thursday evening, as was announced Saturday. The announcement came from Mr. Cunningham's family and published in good faith.

The Manager of Columbian Park desires to state to the public that he is now ready to make dates for the park; picnics, private dances, horse races, bicycle races, ball games, concerts, etc.

Until further notice, ladies, and children under 12 years, when accompanied by their parents or grown persons, will be admitted free to the grove from 10:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. every day in the week, except days when the park is rented for picnics, races or other performances.

The Columbian Park Land company will put on sale their first addition to the city within the next 10 days. Home seekers will do well to investigate early. The office will be in the old skating building on Pennsylvania avenue. Office open every evening; can make appointment by telephoning.

MRS. M'KINLEY ILL

Wife of President Taken to San Francisco for Much Needed Rest.

The President May Join the Party at San Jose Today—Besides Her Illness, Mrs. McKinley Has a Badly Effected Finger.

San Francisco, May 13.—A special train bearing President and Mrs. McKinley, Miss Barber, Dr. Rixey, Secretary Cortelyou and Henry T. Scott, arrived Sunday afternoon from Delmonte. Mrs. McKinley was brought here by the president in advance of the regular program, that she may obtain complete rest. Upon arrival here the president and party were driven to the residence of Henry T. Scott, which they will occupy during their stay here.

Her condition is said not to be alarming, but she has not been well since the long journey began, and the trip has fatigued her very much. Saturday night she did not respond to medical treatment, and both the president and Dr. Rixey considered it wise to take her to San Francisco, where she could have complete rest for a few days at Mr. Scott's residence, and where Dr. Hirschfelter, Mr. Scott's physician, could be consulted if necessary.

President May Join Them Today.

The cabinet and other members of the party were to carry out the program as arranged, going to San Jose today and arriving at San Francisco on Tuesday. The understanding was that the president will rejoin the party at San Jose if Mrs. McKinley's condition permits. Dr. Rixey said Mrs. McKinley was much better Sunday than she had been Saturday night.

Mrs. McKinley bruised her hand while the train was rounding a sharp curve in Sunday's trip and she suffered considerably from the bruise since. Her delicate health has aggravated the injury and Dr. Rixey was twice compelled to lance it. The lancing relieved her very much for the time being.

Only a few hundred people greeted the president upon his arrival in this city. The president, in order to avoid the crowd that was expected to assemble at the Southern Pacific depot, at Third and Townsend streets, left the train with his little party at Valencia street, a station in the southern part of the city. When the train, consisting of a baggage car and the president's special coach, stopped at Valencia street, Mrs. McKinley was carried in a steamer chair by two colored porters from the private car to a closed carriage in waiting. She was heavily veiled and the president and Dr. Rixey followed close behind. Mrs. McKinley was gently placed in the carriage and the president and Dr. Rixey took seats in the same vehicle. The president was quite pale and looked serious. The rest of the party followed in carriages. Mr. and Mrs. Scott had arrived at their residence ahead of the president and were waiting to receive their distinguished guests. Mrs. McKinley was again lifted out of the carriage and placed in an invalid chair and carried into the house.

Secretary Cortelyou, when questioned concerning Mrs. McKinley's condition, stated that there was nothing alarming in her present indisposition and that perfect quiet and rest for a few days would restore her to her usual health. It was the impression, however, of those who saw Mrs. McKinley that she is very ill and that her present state may result in an entire change of the president's program.

Should his wife's health improve the president, it was expected, will carry out his intention to attend the celebration at San Jose today. If, however, her condition today shall be no better than Sunday, the president, it was expected, would not leave his wife's side, but would allow the cabinet officers and others of his party to represent him at San Jose.

About 6 o'clock last night Dr. Rixey made the following statement:

(Mrs. McKinley Stood Trip Well.

"Mrs. McKinley stood the trip from Delmonte much better than I expected. Her condition is not serious. She will stay here at least a week and have perfect rest. I think by that time she will be able to continue the journey. She has been gaining strength all afternoon."

Delmonte, Cal., May 13.—Mrs. McKinley's illness cast a shadow on the other members of the party who remained here, and there was talk at first of abandoning the entire schedule between here and San Francisco, but Mrs. McKinley especially requested that the plans of the party should not be disarranged by her departure, and when the president left Sunday morning the understanding was that the program originally fixed should be carried out. The president has himself said he would rejoin the party as soon as Mrs. McKinley shall be made comfortable.

The party was scheduled to leave here this morning, and after about a 10-minute stop at Pajaro, they would go to Santa Cruz for a glimpse of the big trees. It was not the expectation of the president that he could be at either of these places, but he thought he could meet the cabinet at San Jose, where great preparations have been made to receive him, and where the program was for the party to spend tonight. In that case he could enter San Francisco tomorrow afternoon, as originally contemplated, without disarranging the plans for the ovation arranged for him there. It is possible that Mrs. McKinley's condition, if it shall not improve as rapidly as hoped, may necessitate a curtailment of the program in San Francisco, and for the remainder of the trip.

The day after leaving New Orleans a bone felon appeared upon Mrs. McKinley's finger. Her hand became swollen and gave her considerable pain, and produced fever that prevented her from sleeping. Dr. Rixey twice lanced the felon and gave her some relief in that way. Mrs. McKinley bore it bravely and urged that the program at the cities and towns should not be modified in any particular on her account.

It was hoped that the rest here would do her good, but she slept little Saturday night, and Sunday morning, although her condition had improved, she reluctantly agreed to go to San Francisco at once. The party got away from the hotel so quietly that many of the guests did not know until evening that the President and Mrs. McKinley had gone.

Delmonte, Cal., May 13.—Owing to the state of Mrs. McKinley's health, the president and Mrs. McKinley, accompanied by Dr. Rixey and Miss Barber, the president's niece, left for San Francisco about 11:30 o'clock Sunday. They will go to the residence of Henry T. Scott there, and it is hoped that the complete rest will have a beneficial effect upon Mrs. McKinley. Her condition is said not to be alarming, but she is worn out by her long journey, and it was considered wise to take her to San Francisco, where she could have proper nursing and where specialists could be consulted if necessary.

The program for the party between here and San Francisco will be carried out as originally planned, and the president expects to be able to rejoin the party at San Jose this afternoon if Mrs. McKinley's condition warrants it.

BOOK ON AGRICULTURE.

Year Book of Department May Be Ready About July 1.

Washington, May 13.—The year book of the United States department of agriculture for 1900 is now in press and will be ready for distribution about July 1. In addition to the report of the secretary and the appendix, this volume contains 31 articles, in which each division of original work is represented. A new feature is the publication of requirements for admission to the agricultural department of the land colleges, and the cost of attendance.

The year book is a volume of 888 pages, illustrated with a frontispiece, 87 plates, of which nine are colored and 88 text figures. The regular edition is 500,000 copies, of which 470,000 are by law reserved for the exclusive use of congress, and 30,000 for the department. All others than crop correspondents must apply to their senators or representatives in congress.

The articles include: "Smyrna Fig Culture in the United States," "Amplification of Weather Forecasts," "Commercial Plant Introduction," "Forest Extension in the Middle West," "Influence of Rye on the Price of Wheat," "Mountain Roads," "Fungous Diseases of Forest Trees," "Rabies," "The Scale Insect and Mite Enemies of Citrus Trees," "How Birds Affect the Orchard," "Hot Waves," "Potatoes as Food," "Practical Forestry in the Southern Appalachians," "Commercial Pear Culture," "Development of the Trucking Interests," "The Date Palm," "Practical Irrigation," "Free Delivery of Rural Mails," "Successful Wheat Growing in Semi-arid Districts."

MARTINELLI CELEBRATED MASS

Papal Messenger Stood Close to Him During Service.

Washington, May 13.—Cardinal Martinelli celebrated pontifical high mass Sunday at St. Aloysius church. The edifice was thronged, many Catholic clergymen attending to hear his elevation to the cardinalate. The cardinal was robed in black, with an almost invisible red border. He wore the red beretta. Count Colacicchi, the papal messenger, stood throughout the services, arrayed in his brilliant uniform, always close to the cardinal.

More than 1,000 electric lights beamed in the church, making the scene one of great beauty. The sermon was delivered by Rev. William O'Brien Pardon, formerly provincial of the Society of Jesus.

SOME NEWS IN BRIEF.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

Wanted — a Game — The Century base ball club would like to have a game with the West End Rovers at an early date as possible for love or money.

S. P. A. Club Ball — The S. P. A. club will hold a dance at Rock Springs park tomorrow evening. The music will be furnished by an Italian orchestra.

Sixty at First Communion — Yesterday morning at St. Aloysius church at high mass at 8 o'clock 60 children took first communion. They also took renewal of baptism vows, pledged until 21 and were invested with the scapular of Mt. Carmel.

III in New York — Ed Way, eastern representative of the R. Thomas & Sons Co., of this city, is seriously ill at his home in New York city. Mr. Way formerly conducted a store here and was well and favorably known.

Wire Broke — A dead electric wire crossing Market street, between Third and Fourth, broke and fell Sunday afternoon and frightened a number of pedestrians who were in close proximity and who supposed the wire was charged. A motorman removed the obstruction.

Horse Fell on the Street — A horse driven by Attorney F. E. Grosshans fell at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets last evening and sustained several severe bruises about the head and fore legs. Mr. Grosshans was thrown from the buggy, but was not injured.

Will Meet Wednesday — The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet in regular session Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This will be the first held since the time of meeting was changed from Saturday to Wednesday.

Comers and Goers — The following moving were handled at the freight station today: Charles Debee, to Sebring; John H. Litmer, to Canton; Joseph Kenyon, to Massillon; Jacob Reiss, to Dennison. The goods of A. Bowman, from East Palestine, and of J. Levellara, from New Castle, were received.

Spoke at the Presbyterian Church — Rev. James Hedges, of Kenwick, Idaho, and Rev. James Hays, a native Nez Perces Indian, who have been spending a few days in this city, will leave tomorrow morning for Philadelphia, where they will attend the meeting of the general assembly. The reverend gentlemen addressed the congregation of the First Presbyterian church last evening and made a deep impression.

Taken to Hospital — James Moore left for Pittsburg Sunday afternoon on the steamer Keystone State, in company with Aaron Guthrie and H. P. McNicol. Mr. Moore was taken to a hospital at the Smoky City to undergo treatment for heart trouble. Only a short while ago he returned home from that institution after having spent several weeks there. His health was temporarily benefited, but his condition rapidly became worse, thus necessitating his return to the hospital.

STILL AGGRESSIVE

The Papers Authorizing the Stock Company Among Striking Plumbers Will Arrive Soon.

The headquarters of the striking plumbers is still open, and is a very popular resort for them, at least once a day, as they are required to register each day in order to draw their strike benefits.

The movement to organize a stock company gives promise of reaching a successful consummation. The license and returns from the bond required by law were expected to arrive Saturday, but have not yet been received. Just as soon as this is heard from no time will be lost in electing officers and getting matters in shape for doing work.

There is no change in the situation as far as the strike is concerned, and the men are more determined than ever to win. Some of the strikers are doing considerable work about the city, and are experiencing very little difficulty in the matter of securing supplies, as those of the firms who signed the scale are lending whatever assistance they can to the men.

SOUTH SIDE.

NOT SUSTAINED

The Charge of Theft Brought Against William Glendenning Unsubstantiated.

The case of George Conn against William Glendenning was heard in Justice Johnston's court Saturday afternoon. Conn alleged that Glendenning had stolen tools from the T. L. & S. pottery. Conn failed to sustain the charge and the evidence seemed to indicate very poor ground for bringing the action.

The facts brought out showed that Conn had found a shovel which he claimed belonged to him, on the river shore near Glendenning's boat house. According to Glendenning, Conn accused him of stealing the shovel and started to take it back to the pottery. Glendenning interfered and Conn brought the action as the result. The case was dismissed at the expense of the plaintiff, and the shovel still remains on the river shore without a claimant.

FELL FROM A HAND CAR.

Thomas Kinney Badly Bruised in an Accident Saturday

Thomas Kinney fell from a rapidly moving hand car near Newell's station Saturday evening and was severely injured. An ankle was sprained and he was badly bruised. He also received internal injuries that may prove serious. He was taken to his home in Chester, where he will be laid up for some time.

Williams-Wallace.

William Wallace, of Uhrichsville, O., and Miss Pearl Williams, of Chester, were married at the bride's home at 11 o'clock this morning. Rev. H. M. Carnahan performed the ceremony. The happy couple left for a short honeymoon, after which they will reside at Uhrichsville.

CHESTER NEWS.

J. B. Pierce and G. A. Arner will go to Pittsburg on business tomorrow.

The final test of the roller coaster was made Saturday evening and everything ran very smoothly. A number of people were riding today.

Denies That He Is Married.

John Cunningham denies the report that he and Mrs. Ollie Jackson were married Thursday evening, as was announced Saturday. The announcement came from Mr. Cunningham's family and published in good faith.

The Manager of Columbian Park desires to state to the public that he is now ready to make dates for the park; picnics, private dances, horse races, bicycle races, ball games, concerts, etc.

Until further notice, ladies, and children under 12 years, when accompanied by their parents or grown persons, will be admitted free to the grove from 10:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. every day in the week, except days when the park is rented for picnics, races or other performances.

The Columbian Park Land company will put on sale their first addition to the city within the next 10 days. Home seekers will do well to investigate early. The office will be in the old skating building on Pennsylvania avenue. Office open every evening; can make appointment by telephoning.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, MAY 13, 1901.

GAMBLING HOUSE RAIDED AND MANY VICTIMS CAUGHT

Officers Made Best Haul of the Season Sunday Night.

TERRY CARMAN'S POKER ROOM

Was the Scene of the Raid, Which Was Well Carried Out.

INMATES BADLY FRIGHTENED

The Proprietor, With Twelve Others Engaged in the Games, Was Placed Under Arrest—About 30 Spectators Were Present Also.

A gambling house on Midway alley, conducted by Terry Carman, was raided Saturday night, at a late hour by Chief Thompson, together with Officers Morris and Dawson. The raid was well planned and successfully carried out, and was the most productive of any in many months past.

For several hours previous to making the "pull," the officers kept a close watch on the place, and when they finally decided to act the gambling tables were in full blast and the room filled with sports of every class. It is estimated that 50 young men were congregated in the place when the officers appeared on the scene, though only 12 of the number were engaged in the games.

The raid was a complete surprise to the gamblers, as not a single one of them had the least inkling of the officers' intentions until the blue coats were in full possession of everything in sight. Pandemonium reigned for a time and several of the "tenderfeet" became weak at the knees; but the proprietor urged the young men to keep cool and gave the assurance they wouldn't be harmed.

Those not engaged in the games were allowed to go, but the players were placed under arrest. The proprietor was also taken into custody. On his promise to put up the necessary cost to liquidate his fine and those of his colleagues, none of the victims were taken to jail. All promised to appear at the mayor's office today for trial.

Following is a list of the names as given to Chief Thompson, several of which are said to be fictitious: Charles McGinnis, James Whiting, Arthur Rogers, Frank Williamson, George Eoff, James Briggs, John McGunnell, William Henry, J. Sigsby, Frank Boyd, George French and Jim Colley.

Many of the gamblers are of prominent family and it was a surprise to the officers to find them in the place.

Shortly before noon today Carman called at the mayor's office and paid a fine of $10 and costs. The others were assessed $6.60 each. All paid up and were allowed to go.

POLICE WERE BUSY

MANY VICTIMS GATHERED IN SUNDAY NIGHT.

Disorderly House at West End Raided. Also a West Market Street Saloon.

Following the raiding of the Midway alley gambling house on Saturday night, the officers, spurred to greater activity by the fruitfulness of the haul made, started in again on Sunday night and made things lively for a time.

Barney Mulrine conducts a saloon on West Market street. The police learned he was dispensing drinks at a time he should have been attending Sunday worship and contrary to the ordinances of the city. Accordingly Chief Thompson, together with Officers Mahoney and Dawson, called at Barney's place of business and took temporary possession.

Mrs. Mulrine was back of the bar, while Joe Cowell and Jack Hauseiller was in front of the counter smacking their lips over large schooners of the amber stuff. The two loiterers were taken to police headquarters, where they put up security for their appearance for trial this evening.

Later in the evening Chief Thompson, together with the entire police force, quietly made their way to the West End, where they swooped down on the disorderly house conducted by Mrs. Nellie Brown. The woman and four of her understudies—Fern Young, Maud Howard, Marie Johnson and Irene McElvay—together with William Hawley, a stranger in the city, were all placed under arrest.

Just as one of the officers started to summon the patrol wagon, the females produced several huge rolls of greenbacks which they turned over to the chief for security for their appearance for trial. The male visitor also put up a gold piece to escape a ride to the jail. The aggregation was instructed to call on Mayor Davidson tonight at 7 o'clock, when he will hear their stories as to how it all happened.

Charles McGavern was arrested Sunday night by Officer Morris. Charley was shamefully soaked with fire water and his cerebrum had become foggy. He was assisted to jail in the patrol and this morning was fined $1 and costs. He was broke and still languishes in jail.

John Brick was found in a box car on the Horn switch Sunday night by Chief Thompson. He was fast asleep and was much surprised when he found himself under arrest. The patrol conveyed him to jail and this morning he was fined $1 and costs. He managed to raise the fine and was released.

Peter Mullen was arrested Saturday evening by Patrolmen Woods and Rose on the charge of petit larceny. The young man was accused of having stolen a quantity of fish from Nisson & Pennybaker's place of business on West Market street.

Mullen was locked up in jail a short time and then taken before Mayor Davidson. He was badly frightened and shed copious tears. On his promise to pay for the stolen fish, the mayor dismissed the young man, after administering an articulated castigation.

Jack Farmer, arrested several days since and later released from jail on his promise to pay his fine, fulfilled his agreement Saturday night, when he called at the mayor's office and turned over the full amount of his assessment.

TAKEN ILL IN CHURCH

MRS. JACOB SHENKEL SEIZED WITH A FAINTING SPELL.

For a Time Her Life Was Despaired Of—Now Out of Danger.

While attending church services at the Methodist Protestant church yesterday morning Mrs. Jacob Shenkel was seized with a fainting spell, and for a time her life was despaired of. She was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Berg, on Jefferson street, and a physician summoned. It was with great difficulty that she was restored, and the lady was unconscious for more than two hours. A carriage was procured, but it was impossible to remove her until late in the afternoon.

Mrs. Shenkel was taken to her home on Basil avenue last evening and is somewhat improved today.

ROUGH PLAY

Causes Painful Injury to Roy Smith, a Klonkide Pottery Workman.

Roy Smith, of Smith's Ferry, met with a painful accident at the Klonkide pottery Saturday. He was wrestling with a fellow workman who seized a polishing knife and struck him on the arm, cutting a large gash. He was taken to the office of a physician, where the injury was dressed.

CHILD CAME NEAR DEATH BY DROWNING

FELL HEAD FIRST INTO A LARGE CAN OF WATER.

When Found the Little One Was Unconscious, But Its Life Was Saved.

A small child of Edgar Thorne, who resides in the Davidson block on Second street, fell into a large can filled with water at noon Sunday and was thought to be dead when found.

The child was playing about the can when it accidentally tripped and stumbled, falling head first into the vessel, which was full to the top with water which had been used for scrubbing. Mr. Thorne discovered the imperiled youngster and when it was drawn out of the water there were no signs of life. The father went for a doctor and then returned home as soon as possible. He stood the child on its head and rubbed its body and by the time the physician arrived the little one was revived to consciousness.

HEAVY FROST

IN SOME SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY LAST NIGHT.

Believed That Fruit Prospects Were Not Greatly Injured By It.

There was a heavy frost throughout the country districts last night, and it may be that a great deal of harm will be done the fruit crop.

The heaviest frost occurred at points north of the city, but it was impossible to determine the extent of the damage, as those spoken to about the frost left their homes so early in the morning that the fruit trees were still covered with the stuff.

However, a number of authorities were consulted, among them being John B. Birch, the fruit tree man, and they say there is no real cause for alarm.

The buds on a great majority of the fruit tree have reached a point so near maturity that it would take a frost much heavier than that of last night to nip them. Another thing that men well versed on these matters give as a reason for thinking the injury will not be great, is the fact that the leaves have come out, and to a certain extent protect the blossoms.

The prospects are good for one of the largest fruit crops in years, and from present indications this will not be confined to any one particular kind of fruit, but will be general.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE?

GERMAN DRAGGED FROM THE RIVER SATURDAY NIGHT.

Believed He Tried to Drown Himself. Was Under Influence of Liquor.

Sunday night a man aged about 40 years, thought to be a German, but whose name was not learned, was dragged from the river near the foot of Union street in a semi-conscious state.

How he got into the water is not known, but it is said he accidentally fell overboard from a shanty boat. Another man, who is supposed to have been a companion of the German, told Officer Stoffard he was drunk and had attempted to suicide. Before the officer could investigate, the man who was rescued had disappeared.

LOCKED IN JAIL

Two Wellsville Men Accused of Attempted Horse Stealing Were Arrested.

It is charged that Andrew McCormick and John Skelley, of Wellsville, boldly attempted to steal a team of fine driving horses and a buggy belonging to Charles McLane, of Irondale, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. McLane had hitched his horses on Thirteenth street, Wellsville, and

City Solicitor L. P. Metzger, of Salem, Demands a Jury Trial When His Case Next Comes Up in Probate Court—Columbiana Bank Sale.

Lisbon, May 13.—(Special)—William E. Thompson, of East Liverpool, is a much abused husband, according to his story. He has filed a petition for divorce from his wife, Emma Thompson, alleging that she has neglected him and her home and refused to cook for him. He further declares that she remains away from her home all day and frequently stays out late at night. He claims that she uses most abusive language against him, both on the street and at home. His most serious charge is that she has threatened to poison him. On this account he lives in continuous dread.

Young Crawford had finished his jump and was sitting down when another boy alighted upon his leg, breaking it.

Carl Crawford, son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Clark Crawford, of Jackson street, had his leg broken Saturday night in a very peculiar manner. The lad, in company with several companions, were playing on Jackson street Saturday evening and were engaged in a jumping contest.

Young Crawford had finished his jump and was sitting down when another boy alighted upon his leg, breaking it.

TRADES COUNCIL

IMPORTANT BUSINESS TO COME BEFORE NEXT MEETING.

Standing Committees to Be Appointed Wednesday Evening—Labor Day Picnic.

Trades and Labor Council will meet in regular session on Wednesday night, and in order to start the year in proper shape a great deal of preliminary business will be transacted.

President McLane will appoint a number of standing committees. This is one of the most important matters to be disposed of throughout the year. When it is considered that a vast majority of the questions considered by the council are referred to and gone over by the committees, it can readily be understood how important it is to have the right parties in the right place in the composition of the committees.

The constitution provides for committees on organization, legislation and union labels and each is composed of three members. The committee on grievance and arbitration consists of five members, and it is one of the most important in connection with the organization.

One of the recent amendments to the constitution provides that there shall be a standing committee, whose duty it will be to have charge of and conduct the Labor day picnic, which is always conducted under the auspices of Trades Council.

A COLD BATH

Given a Man Who Tried to Leap from the Ben Hur After She Started.

William Baker received a good ducking at the wharf boat yesterday morning. The Ben Hur was tied in at the wharf, and Baker, with a number of other people, were on the boat. He did not get off when the last bell rang and when it pulled out he attempted to jump to the wharf. He missed his guess and fell into the water.

A number of friends pulled him out at the end of the wharf and he was uninjured save for the bath.

TAKEN TO ALLEGHENY

BODY OF THE DROWNED BOY IDENTIFIED BY PARENTS.

Description And Articles Found Proved That the Lad Was Harry Gaughan.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Gaughan, of 2319 Randolph street, Allegheny, arrived in East Liverpool Sunday morning and immediately repaired to Chester, where they identified the corpse found in the river Friday as that of their son, Harry, aged six years.

The identity was established beyond any doubt by the boy's clothing, the medals he wore and the fact that he was minus two front teeth. The body was taken to Allegheny on the 8 o'clock train this morning.

Mayor Davidson received a message yesterday afternoon from E. S. Rouse, of Homestead, stating that his son, aged 12 years, who was drowned January 12, partly answered the description given.

River Again Rising.

The river is again on the rise, the marks registering 10 feet. The Keystone State, Ben Hur and Kanawha passed up yesterday and the Keystone and Ben Hur will go down tonight. The John Moren passed down yesterday with a large tow of coal.

STRUCK BY A CAR

A Wagon Loaded With Young People Wrecked in a Collision Near New York.

TWO PERSONS WERE KILLED

Five Placed in a Hospital—Others Had Wounds Dressed and Also Others Bruised—A Street Car Ran Away—One Person May Die.

New York, May 13.—Of 26 young people who started from College Point, L. I., on what is locally known as a "star light" ride, two were carried home dead, five are in the hospital, four were allowed to leave the hospital after having their wounds dressed, and every one of the remainder were more or less bruised. A collision with a trolley car caused the accident. The dead are Michael Schneir and Joseph Pickel.

The merry makers were on their way to a hotel 10 miles away, where they were to have a dance. They were all in one wagon, the bottom of which had been filled with straw. It was almost midnight when they reached Distler's hotel, on the edge of Jamaica. When in front of the house the driver of the wagon tried to cross the tracks of a trolley line in front of an approaching car, but the car struck the rear end of the wagon. The vehicle was demolished. Pickel was hurled into the air and fell 30 feet away, his head striking a fire hydrant. Schneir was also thrown into the air and landed head first on the macadam pavement. Both died in a short time.

Miss Mattie Debovise sustained a severe contusion of the chest and hips, and was the worst hurt among the injured. The car itself was badly wrecked, but none of the 25 passengers was injured.

The motorman was arrested, though claiming to be without blame in the matter.

New York, May 13.—An open trolley car, on which were packed about 115 persons, got away from the motorman Sunday near Fort Lee, N. J., and dashed down Leonia hill. Every person on the car was bruised, three were seriously hurt and only one of them is likely to die. Frank Sunstruck, the conductor, it is feared, may lose his life on account of possible internal injuries, and J. F. Robinson and his wife, of this city, are the two others who were seriously hurt.

The heavily loaded car had started down an incline a quarter of a mile in length, when the motorman lost control. It was so fast no one dared to jump off. The road is a winding one. At the foot of the hill it curves sharply.

When the front trucks hit the curve they started around it and made it. The rear ones followed part of the way. The wrench upon the car, however, as it swung about, was so great that the body was lifted and torn from the trucks and rolled over and hit the ground.

The passengers were caught in and under the car and were piled in a heap.

ATLAS LINE SOLD.

Hamburg-American Company Closes Important Deal—Now Largest In World.

New York, May 13.—The announcement was made that the Hamburg-American line has acquired the Atlas steamship line, which for about the past 30 years has plied between Jamaica, Haiti and Central America. The Atlas line was formerly owned by an English corporation, but under the Hamburg-American line will fly the German flag.

This addition to the service makes the Hamburg-American steamship line the largest in the world, the entire tonnage being 630,000 tons, which is divided among 120 vessels, sailing in 30 different services. By its acquisition of the Atlas line it has gained seven new steamers of an average tonnage of 3,000.

Emil L. Boas, general manager for North America of the Hamburg-American line, admitted that the Atlas line had been acquired by his company, the deal having been consummated the latter part of the week. He said that the company intended greatly improving the service on the Atlas line and that he expected in the near future several new and modern vessels would be built for the South American service. The Atlas fleet consists of the steamships Altai, Alps, Althos, Allegheny, Adirondack, Andes and Alene. It was said about $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 was paid.

Found Body of a Man.

Hamilton, O., May 13.—While John Kyle, a farmer living near Monroe, a village 10 miles east of Hamilton, was harrowing a field on his farm, he came across the badly decomposed remains of a man hanging to a fence stake in a corner of the field. From the appearance the body had evidently been hanging for two weeks. The face was so decomposed that Kyle was unable to tell whether the man was white or a negro. Coroner Sharkey will make an investigation.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

Once a week or oftener the NEWS REVIEW publishes a department of lodge news. Officers and members of the various orders are invited to contribute. The name and address of the writer must accompany every communication.

The Modern Woodmen of America, at their meeting Wednesday evening, transacted routine business and balloted on three new new candidates. They will be initiated at the meeting of the order on Wednesday, May 22.

The Woodmen of the World held a special meeting Wednesday evening and initiated 16 new members. The order at this meeting commenced making arrangements for the unveiling of monuments, which will be held soon.

The degree team of Pride of the East council No. 8, Jr. O. U. A. M., will go to Toronto tomorrow evening for a visit to Toronto council No. 10, and they will initiate several new candidates.

The Daughters of Rebekah will give a musicale and social in I. O. O. F. hall tomorrow evening. They have secured Miss Eva Dunning, a noted elocutionist of Columbus, and also considerable home talent. A good time is expected.

The Daughters of America, at their meeting Wednesday evening, received six new applications for membership. They will be initiated at their meeting next Wednesday evening. The committees appointed to make arrangements for the entertainment of the state council of the order to be held in this city in September, reported that arrangements are complete in every detail.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle, at their meeting last Tuesday evening, received two new applications for membership and action will be taken on them at their meeting tomorrow night. They also decided on their annual picnic and reunion, which will be held at Cascade Park July 27. All orders from eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania will be in attendance at the reunion.

The Ladies of the Golden Eagle, at their last meeting, entertained a number of Pride of the East Temple No. 21, of Lisbon. The following were present: Mrs. Bert Gamble, Mrs. John Edwards, Mrs. J. O. Morrow, Mrs. James Henderson, Misses Laura Hoopes, Etta Dick, Sarah Davis and John Strouges, Harry Paisley, Ed Nicholson and John Davis. The Pride of the East Temple brought two new candidates with them and they were initiated here, after which refreshments were served and those present enjoyed themselves until an early hour Saturday morning.

At the meeting of the subordinate lodge of Odd Fellows tonight two candidates will be given the first degree. A report will also be heard from the committee in charge of the picnic scheduled for June 5. Prospects are good for a very large attendance at this gathering, as encouraging reports have been received from a large number of sister lodges. The canton has decided to take an active part in the affair, and with that end

THE OLDEST MAN WHO GARRIES MAIL

William Scadden, of Chester, Said to Be Entitled to That Distinction.

HAS HAD AN EVENTFUL CAREER

Knew Indians And Was a Pioneer War Experience—Makes Regular Boatman—Fought a Panther—His Trips at the Age of 87.

The oldest mail carrier in the United States is William Scadden. He makes daily trips between East Liverpool and Mercer Postoffice, W. Va. Mercer is an old postoffice around which the new and thriving town of Chester has grown up. Chester is less than two years old, but her mail carrier is almost 87.

Rain or shine, in the heat of summer and in the snows of winter, the aged carrier makes his trips on foot, carrying his mail sack on his back, says the Chronicle Telegraph. The distance is about a mile and the carrier's salary is $125 a year. The remuneration is not large, but the work occupies Mr. Scadden's time for only about an hour a day. He is a veteran of the Civil war, and with a pension of $12 a month and some income from other sources, has ample money for his needs. The old man has carried the mail for three years and has the contract for carrying it for four more. Mr. Scadden is likely to fill out the full time, as he is apparently strong and vigorous. To see him on the street no one would take him to be a day over 60.

Wm Scadden has had an interesting and varied career. His parents were pioneer settlers at the "forks of the Yough" where the city of McKeesport now stands, and had their full share of the hardships of the early days, including several narrow escapes from death at the hands of the Indians. Early in the present century they moved to Frankfort Springs, Beaver county, Pa., where William was born July 4, 1814. Indians were numerous in his boyhood days and he had many acquaintances among them. Mr. Scadden tells an interesting story of a fight between "Bigfoot," an Indian of giant stature, and Adam Poe, a river settler who lived just over the Ohio line in Beaver county, and points out the spot where it occurred. Poe was the largest white man in all the western country. "Bigfoot" had been making raids with his band, and Poe vowed vengeance. One day the two giants met at point opposite Wellsville. The Indian was seated beneath a ledge of rock when Poe came upon him. They fought with nature's weapons, and the contest was a fierce one. "Bigfoot" was getting the better of Poe when a party of the latter's friends came up and interfered. The Indian was killed and the country was rid of a terror.

But farm life in a forest was not altogether to Mr. Scadden's liking, and when about 15 he ran away from home. He soon fell in with some of the crew of the Robert Emmet, a pioneer Ohio river steamer, and obtained a berth on the boat as cabin boy. It was years before his parents ever saw him again, or knew that he was alive. He led a boatman's life for perhaps ten years, rising from the position of cabin boy to that of watchman, and was greatly esteemed and honored by his employers. When he left the boat they presented him with a fine watch and chain. Mr. Scadden's next business venture was to embark in keelboating along with the Poes, his neighbors. Their traffic was between Pittsburgh, Wheeling and Marietta, sometimes extending as far as Cincinnati. The freight charge for goods was 12 1/2 cents a hundred from Pittsburgh to Wheeling. The boats were poled and were difficult to manage. Sometimes on the up trip they were towed by horses. Engaged in this business were Jacob, Adam and Thomas Poe. Out of the profits of keelboating in later years they became steamboat owners.

Mr. Scadden tells of a trip he made to Cincinnati with another lad, accompanying a party of immigrants. The boys were paid off at Cincinnati and started to walk home. They stopped wherever night overtook them. Sometimes they could find a roof to shelter them; oftener they could not. One evening when they were on their travels they were pursued by a large and fierce panther. Knowing that they would be overtaken and killed unless their pursuer was disposed of, they took stand in an open place and decided to fight. Scadden's companion had a pistol, and both armed themselves with large clubs. When the panther came into view and was stalking upon them, the pistol was fired. It wounded the beast, and also maddened him. He rushed on furiously, and the young men wielded their clubs for their lives. They came out victorious and pursued their journey, leaving the huge animal stretched dead upon the ground.

When the Civil war broke out Scadden, who was then a married man, was living in Meigs county, in this state. He enlisted in Company I, Fifty-third O. V. I., and served through the fierce Shiloh campaign, having many narrow escapes and seeing much hard service. After a year and a half of soldier life he was discharged for physical disability and returned home. All his comrades agree that he was a good soldier. His next war experience was with the Morgan Raiders, 500 of whom camped on his farm in Meigs county, stole his horses and stripped house, barn and farm of everything they fancied. When the raiders left the Scaddens were as destitute as if a cyclone had despoiled their homestead.

Shortly after the war Mr. Scadden came to this county and for a number of years was engaged in farming near Lisbon. Thence he moved to West Virginia, where he has since resided. He is a leading member of the Chester Free Methodist church, which was organized and built largely through his efforts. He gave $400 toward building the church, and is the president of the board of trustees. He is a working member, and whenever money is to be raised he is the man selected for the task. Mr. Scadden believes in work and says he expects to work as long as he lives.

His wife, whose maiden name was Anna Beard, died a few years ago at the age of 81, after 60 years of happy married life. One daughter, Mrs. Lyman Lamborn, of East Liverpool, is their only child. Mr. Scadden has seven grandchildren and makes his home with one of them. He has hosts of friends and is widely known.

The foregoing article was published under an East Liverpool date, in the Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph of last Friday. The cut is reproduced in these columns by courtesy of that paper.

EAST END.

ITALIANS' WASHING

Scattered to the Four Winds By a Violent Windstorm on Sunday.

The Italians who reside in the shanty on the hill above the Smith addition furnished considerable amusement for pedestrians on upper Pennsylvania avenue yesterday. The dark-skinned wanderers from the sunny land always do their washing on Sunday. Yesterday they had just finished their work and had hung the garments out to dry when a windstorm came up and a large beach tree near the shanty was blown down. It barely missed the shanty and fell directly across the clothes line.

The line was broken and the garments were scattered far and wide over the hillside. In gathering these up the Italians gave an exhibition of sprinting that perhaps excelled anything in this line ever seen among Italians in this city. No fights occurred, but loud words were plentiful, and if they had talked English they would doubtless have been arrested on a charge of profanity.

CHICKEN THIEVES

Made a Successful Raid on the Poultry Yard of Michael Stilwell.

Michael Stilwell, of Calhoun addition, was visited by thieves Saturday night. They stole eight fancy chickens and several valuable articles from his hen house and were evidently only beginning business when a neighbor discovered them and reported to Stilwell. The thieves, however, made good their escape.

Mr. Stilwell thinks that the thieves were people who don't live far away and are desirous of starting into the poultry business themselves. He is trying to gather a little evidence and hopes to locate the guilty party.

EVANGELIST DEPARTS

Rev. A. H. Kaylor Closes a Season of Remarkably Successful Labor.

Rev. A. H. Kaylor left this morning for Jeannette, Pa. He has preached daily in the United Presbyterian churches of this city during the past eight weeks. His labors have been remarkably successful.

EAST END GIRLS' CLUB.

One of Its Objects Is to Divide Important Secrets.

The latest thing in the way of a society club to be formed in the East End is the T. G. G. club, which is composed of girls about 15 years of age. These young misses have so many secrets in common that they find it necessary to meet once every week and "unload." After the unloading is done they spend the remaining hours of the evening at games and luncheons.

The first meeting of this club was held last Friday evening. After electing officers the young ladies passed the evening at a "flower" game, two prizes being offered for the ladies who could guess the names of the largest number of flowers, after examining the blossoms separately. Miss Mary Duncan drew the first prize and Miss Kate Stamm the second. Their next meeting will be held at the Stamm residence next Friday night.

A Nail Through His Hand.

Alf McKinnon is suffering from a painful wound, the result of an accident in which a rusty nail was forced almost through his hand. The member is badly swollen and inflamed and it is possible that blood poison may result. He will be unable to be at work for some time.

Got a Thirty-Pound Fish.

Coon Goodballet and William Podmore, who were fishing at Beaver creek Saturday, report that they caught a 30-pound catfish near the mouth of the creek.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

John Capehart is off duty on account of illness.

William Stody, of Calhoun addition, is off duty on account of illness.

James Fulton and wife spent Sunday visiting friends at Smith's Ferry.

It is reported that the frost last night did considerable damage to the fruit in the river valley.

Rev. G. W. Orcutt accompanied the Hoskins family to Wheeling yesterday, where the remains of the late Mrs. Joanna Hoskins were interred. Rev. J. N. Swan, of the Presbyterian church, filled his pulpit morning and evening at the Second Methodist Episcopal church.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

Wanted — a Game — The Century base ball club would like to have a game with the West End Rovers at an early date as possible for love or money.

S. P. A. Club Ball — The S. P. A. club will hold a dance at Rock Springs park tomorrow evening. The music will be furnished by an Italian orchestra.

Sixty at First Communion — Yesterday morning at St. Aloysius church at high mass at 8 o'clock 60 children took first communion. They also took renewal of baptism vows, pledged until 21 and were invested with the scapular of Mt. Carmel.

III in New York — Ed Way, eastern representative, of the R. Thomas & Sons Co., of this city, is seriously ill at his home in New York city. Mr. Way formerly conducted a store here and was well and favorably known.

Wire Broke — A dead electric wire crossing Market street, between Third and Fourth, broke and fell Sunday afternoon and frightened a number of pedestrians who were in close proximity and who supposed the wire was charged. A motorman removed the obstruction.

Horse Fell on the Street — A horse driven by Attorney F. E. Grosshans fell at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets last evening and sustained several severe bruises about the head and fore legs. Mr. Grosshans was thrown from the buggy, but was not injured.

Will Meet Wednesday — The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet in regular session Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This will be the first held since the time of meeting was changed from Saturday to Wednesday.

Comers and Goers — The following movings were handled at the freight station today: Charles Debee, to Sebring; John H. Litmer, to Canton; Joseph Kenyon, to Massillon; Jacob Reiss, to Dennison. The goods of A. Bowman, from East Palestine, and of J. Levellara, from New Castle, were received.

Spoke at the Presbyterian Church — Rev. James Hedges, of Kenwick, Idaho, and Rev. James Hays, a native Nez Perces Indian, who have been spending a few days in this city, will leave tomorrow morning for Philadelphia, where they will attend the meeting of the general assembly. The reverend gentlemen addressed the congregation of the First Presbyterian church last evening and made a deep impression.

Taken to Hospital — James Moore left for Pittsburgh Sunday afternoon on the steamer Keystone State, in company with Aaron Guthrie and H. P. McNicol. Mr. Moore was taken to a hospital at the Smoky City to undergo treatment for heart trouble. Only a short while ago he returned home from that institution after having spent several weeks there. His health was temporarily benefited, but his condition rapidly became worse, thus necessitating his return to the hospital.

STILL AGGRESSIVE

The Papers Authorizing the Stock Company Among Striking Plumbers Will Arrive Soon.

The headquarters of the striking plumbers is still open, and is a very popular resort for them, at least once a day, as they are required to register each day in order to draw their strike benefits.

The movement to organize a stock company gives promise of reaching a successful consummation. The license and returns from the bond required by law were expected to arrive Saturday, but have not yet been received. Just as soon as this is heard from no time will be lost in electing officers and getting matters in shape for doing work.

There is no change in the situation as far as the strike is concerned, and the men are more determined than ever to win. Some of the strikers are doing considerable work about the city, and are experiencing very little difficulty in the matter of securing supplies, as those of the firms who signed the scale are lending whatever assistance they can to the men.

SOUTH SIDE.

NOT SUSTAINED

The Charge of Theft Brought Against William Glendenning Unsubstantiated.

The case of George Conn against William Glendenning was heard in Justice Johnston's court Saturday afternoon. Conn alleged that Glendenning had stolen tools from the T. L. & S. pottery. Conn failed to sustain the charge and the evidence seemed to indicate very poor ground for bringing the action.

The facts brought out showed that Conn had found a shovel which he claimed belonged to him, on the river shore near Glendenning's boat house. According to Glendenning, Conn accused him of stealing the shovel and started to take it back to the pottery. Glendenning interfered and Conn brought the action as the result. The case was dismissed at the expense of the plaintiff, and the shovel still remains on the river shore without a claimant.

FELL FROM A HAND CAR.

Thomas Kinney Badly Bruised in an Accident Saturday

Thomas Kinney fell from a rapidly moving hand car near Newell's station Saturday evening and was severely injured. An ankle was sprained and he was badly bruised. He also received internal injuries that may prove serious. He was taken to his home in Chester, where he will be laid up for some time.

Williams-Wallace.

William Wallace, of Uhrichsville, O., and Miss Pearl Williams, of Chester, were married at the bride's home at 11 o'clock this morning. Rev. H. M. Carnahan performed the ceremony. The happy couple left for a short honeymoon, after which they will reside at Uhrichsville.

CHESTER NEWS.

J. B. Pierce and G. A. Arner will go to Pittsburgh on business tomorrow.

The final test of the roller coaster was made Saturday evening and everything ran very smoothly. A number of people were riding today.

Denies That He Is Married.

John Cunningham denies the report that he and Mrs. Ollie Jackson were married Thursday evening, as was announced Saturday. The announcement came from Mr. Cunningham's family and published in good faith.

The Manager of Columbian Park desires to state to the public that he is now ready to make dates for the park; picnics, private dances, horse races, bicycle races, ball games, concerts, etc.

Until further notice, ladies, and children under 12 years, when accompanied by their parents or grown persons, will be admitted free to the grove from 10:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. every day in the week, except days when the park is rented for picnics, races or other performances.

The Columbian Park Land company will put on sale their first addition to the city within the next 10 days. Home seekers will do well to investigate early. The office will be in the old skating building on Pennsylvania avenue. Office open every evening; can make appointment by telephoning.

BAPTIST AID ASKED

Brethren in the Fire-Swept City of Jacksonville Sadly in Need of Help.

SCORES REPORTED HOMELESS

Many Destitute—Church Must Be Rebuilt—Baptists Throughout the Country Asked to Assist and Rebuild the First Church.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 13.—The Baptists of Jacksonville Sunday issued the following appeal to the Baptists of America:

"Dear Brethren—Jacksonville, the metropolis and gate city of Florida, is in ruins. The great fire of May 3, is the greatest that the New South has ever known, burned 132 blocks in the most thickly settled portion of the city and destroyed every church and every school building in the city proper.

"The First Baptist church, with its contents, was destroyed. Our pastor and family saved only the clothes on their backs, while library and furniture went up in flames. Scores of our church people are homeless. Many of them are destitute and must be helped. A majority of our members have lost their business. The well-to-do have become poor and are unable to assist.

"Our church must be rebuilt, and to that end we are bending every energy. In our weakness and suffering, from the depths of despair, we call on all Baptists throughout the country to assist us in rearing a temple to the Lord that his work may be carried on and his name glorified. Please send your contributions to Dr. W. A. Hobson, pastor, or to E. E. Cleveland, chairman board of deacons."

HELD UP AND ROBBED.

Footpads Relieved Charles Wilson of Bottled Goods Saturday Night.

Charles Wilson, a jiggerman, was held up on Second street at a late hour Saturday night by two unknown footpads, who relieved their victim of a quantity of whisky and beer.

Wilson immediately reported the circumstance to police headquarters, but as he could give no description of the thugs, the officers had no means of bringing the guilty parties to justice.

Col. O. L. Jackson, of New Castle, will deliver the memorial day address at Rogers May 30.

Mrs. Judge Day, of Canton, is much improved, and doctors say she will recover.

Fourteen new houses and a new Methodist church are to be built in Smithfield this season.

C. M. Clark, of Coshocton, 30 years old, a telegraph lineman, fell from a pole in Pittsburg and was killed.

Miss Eunice G. Connell, of East Palestine, was married a few days ago to F. George Isherwood, of Allegheny.

Edwin N. Hartshorn, a member of the Mt. Union college faculty, died at Cleveland. He leaves three daughters.

Byron Ball, aged 18 years, fell from a high scaffold in Cleveland and received fatal injuries. His home is in Toronto.

Peter Fultz, employed at the Buckeye works, Salem, got an iron chipping in his eye, destroying the sight.

Steubenville claims to have the assurance that the proposed lamp combine will erect a great central plant in that vicinity.

A hotel is being built to accommodate the increased travel attracted by the recent renewed boom in the Homeworth oil field.

H. G. Griffin, of Akron, has been appointed assistant quartermaster of the Ohio G. A. R. by Department Commander E. F. Taggart.

Lee Weickart, an employee at the Lisbon tin mill, had his wrist broken while at work and was compelled to return to his home in Rogers.

While in Salem a few days ago E. J. Burgett, of Hickory, was badly bitten in the leg by a dog. The wound was cauterized and the dog killed.

The graduating class of the Irondequoit high school is composed of the following young folks: Misses Gertrude Gibson, Grace Swindler, Catherine Thomas, Harriet Hart, Lloyd McLane.

Mrs. Cora Lucas visited a speak-easy at Glendale, W. Va., and smashed the front in. The occupants fled. The woman then entered and destroyed the bottles and rolled the beer kegs into the river.

Howard Cook, of Salem, an employee of the American Steel and Wire company, is suffering from blood poisoning from a wound received at the plant.

Salem high school will graduate 11 members, as follows, on June 20: Abbie Bonsall, Oda Turner, Nellie Orr, Esther Garwood, Leora Bayard, Edna Taylor, Natalie Sharpnack, Greta Platt, Thomas A. Boyle, Ralph Coy and Sumner Oesch.

After Man Wanted at Akron.

Boston, Mass., May 13.—Inspectors A. B. Kelly and Johnson, both of Akron, O., arrived here from the west in search of Joseph Wade. The prisoner still denies his identity, however. There is trouble over requisition and there may consequently be some delay for the Ohio officers. Inspector Kelley went to Dalton to confer with Governor Crane at his residence in regard to securing requisition papers, but it is doubtful if anything can be done until today or tomorrow.

Confirmation suits arrived this week at 282-i THE SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE.

VIEWS OF A STEEL KING.

Although not every one can be expected to agree with Charles M. Schwab's views, as expressed before the industrial commission on Saturday, as to the utility and public benefits to come from the operation of the great combination of which he is the chief executive officer, his opinions are decidedly interesting and can be read with profit by others besides those engaged in the iron business.

Whether the tendency of the steel combination will be to lower the prices of products and at the same time benefit workingmen, time alone will determine. His statement that the visible supply of iron ore and of coking coal in the United States is so small that, if the consumption of steel continues to increase at the present rate, the ore will be exhausted in 60 years and the coke fields in 30, is a startling one, and will cause grave concern, not only among iron manufacturers, but in the business world in general. Still, it is impossible to believe that the future of the steel industry is as gloomy as this remark would imply. The visible supply is one thing and the resources of nature another. Neither Mr. Schwab nor any other man knows or can know all that the earth conceals in the way of mineral wealth. Discoveries of petroleum, precious metals and other wealth-bringing natural products are constantly being made, even in localities which prospectors of years ago abandoned. Even in the coal fields, it is no rare thing to discover a valuable vein of the black diamond never been suspected even by miners never been inspected even by miners at work in the neighborhood.

It will be hundreds of years certainly before the coal fields are exhausted, and if the Connellsville veins are worked out, as they are likely soon to be, it is by no means improbable that equally valuable coal will be found elsewhere, so that there will be no diminution of the coke output. As for iron ore, it may be necessary to go farther for it, and possibly to utilize ore of an inferior quality, but it is absurd to think that the exhaustion of the Lake Superior mines means the end of American resources in that line.

Interesting as is Mr. Schwab's talk about the iron business, still more so are some of the aphorisms to which he gave utterance in his talk to the commission. Here are samples of them that certainly embody solid chunks of wisdom: "The great captains of industry are not looking for money. There is plenty of that. What they want is brains. The man with exceptional ability is the man for whom everybody is seeking. The country is being ransacked for brains, brains, brains. Opportunities were never so great as they are now for men of brains and energy who are willing to work." If proof of the truth of these assertions is needed, look at Schwab and Carnegie, who were poor men and without prospects at the outset of their phenomenally successful careers. And the country abounds in men whose careers have been almost equally notable, simply because they had brains and used them and their opportunities.

It is safe to say that a good deal of nonsense as well as fiction is being indulged in by the California correspondents who telegraph long stories east regarding alleged jealousy between Governor Nash and President McKinley. Both are men of too many brains and too much experience in public life to entertain any such boyish feelings.

Uncle Russell Sage remarks that he is making money because other people are fools. There's a lot more men in Uncle Russell's class.

The sudden return of winter weather will probably check untimely attempts to rush the straw hat season.

Brains are sufficient capital, according to the foremost captain of industry, if one knows how to use them.

A GERMAN PLAY

The Local Turners Society Have Adopted a Novel Plan of Entertainment.

An entertainment will be given at Turner hall tonight by the local society, which will be a novelty.

Arrangements have been made to produce a play in the German, and it will be a production showing German farm life. The characters have all been placed in good hands, and the entertainment promises to be a successful affair.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Charles Hayden and wife, of Fourth street, left on the boat yesterday for Pittsburgh to visit friends and will return tomorrow.

Rob Harker, who is at the Kiski minetas school, was at home over Sunday. On Saturday his base ball club played with a Cleveland boys' school nine and won.

Carl Angle, who has been employed in the potteries in this city for several months, left Saturday afternoon for Elwood City, where he has accepted a position in a glass house.

Mrs. John McAllister returned to her home in the East End Saturday after a visit at Salineville. She was accompanied by her father, James McCullough, who will make his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Roe and Miss Minnie Roe returned to their home in this city Saturday afternoon from Batesville, O., where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Roe's grandmother.

OBITUARY

Hon. J. H. S. Trainer.

Steubenville, May 13.—Hon. J. H. S. Trainer, the oldest attorney at the Jefferson county bar, died here Saturday. He was born in Lancaster, Pa., and taught school in early life in this county. He was admitted to the bar in 1848 and subsequently practiced in Mt. Gilead, Carrollton and Wellsville, returning to Steubenville in 1853. He served as prosecuting attorney, was mayor of Steubenville two terms and afterward city solicitor. His wife and six children survive him.

Jacob Miller.

Jacob Miller, aged 83, died at his home near Calcutta Saturday afternoon after an illness of several weeks with lung trouble. Mr. Miller had lived in the vicinity of East Liverpool for 50 years and had a large number of friends. He is survived by a wife and four children. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment was made at Long Run cemetery.

Mary O'Shea.

Mary, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Shea, died at her home on Fifth street this morning after a short illness. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Aloysius church and interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

John Woollam.

John Woollam, an aged resident of Clarkson, died Friday afternoon of paralysis, after six hours' illness. He was 78 years of age and had always lived in that vicinity. The funeral was held this morning at 11 o'clock.

Mrs. U. B. Royer.

Salem, April 13.—Mrs. U. B. Royer, nee Stanley, who was born in Butler township in 1823, died here Friday night. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. James Killcrece, of Pittsburgh.

CLERKS' ASSOCIATION.

New Ritual Which Embodies a Valuable Feature.

At a recent meeting of the local branch of the Retail Clerks' Protective Association a one-degree ritual was presented for the consideration of the membership, and it was subsequently adopted.

The ritual provides for an initiation which is very interesting. Three candidates were initiated at the last meeting, and the new form was used.

The change is having a good effect, as it induces a full attendance at each meeting.

To Marry Tomorrow.

George Arthur and Miss Edna Poe will be married by Rev. Clark Crawford at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage tomorrow night. The young couple have a large number of friends in this city who will wish them much happiness. They will reside in this city.

WATCH DOGS

Ever on the Alert—Alive to Every Form of Oppression—Kept on Edge Burdened Beyond Endurance. Nerves Give Out.

The machinery of a mill that grinds day and night has to shut down now and then for repairs. It is the same way with your nerves. Overwork, close application, our ways of living, bring about nerve waste that sets up symptoms of various kinds. It may be failing strength — weakness — languor — headache — sleeplessness, etc. Whatever it is nerve force is lacking and the means of restoring rests with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. A great many people in East Liverpool vouch for this. Among them is Mr. James Peppin, of No. 302 Third street, East Liverpool, O., who says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market street, are a fine nerve tonic. As a result of hard work I was generally debilitated — nervous and could not sleep. I needed rebuilding and found in the Nerve Pills the medicine needed. They have the power to steady and strengthen the nerves — give restful sleep and general vigor to the system at large."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box, also Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment at 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

MRS. M'KINLEY ILL

Wife of President Taken to San Francisco for Much Needed Rest.

The President May Join the Party at San Jose Today—Besides Her Illness, Mrs. McKinley Has a Badly Effected Finger.

San Francisco, May 13.—A special train bearing President and Mrs. McKinley, Miss Barber, Dr. Rixey, Secretary Cortelyou and Henry T. Scott, arrived Sunday afternoon from Delmonte. Mrs. McKinley was brought here by the president in advance of the regular program, that she may obtain complete rest. Upon arrival here the president and party were driven to the residence of Henry T. Scott, which they will occupy during their stay here.

Her condition is said not to be alarming, but she has not been well since the long journey began, and the trip has fatigued her very much. Saturday night she did not respond to medical treatment, and both the president and Dr. Rixey considered it wise to take her to San Francisco, where she could have complete rest for a few days at Mr. Scott's residence, and where Dr. Hirschfeiter, Mr. Scott's physician, could be consulted if necessary.

President May Join Them Today.

The cabinet and other members of the party were to carry out the program as arranged, going to San Jose today and arriving at San Francisco on Tuesday. The understanding was that the president will rejoin the party at San Jose if Mrs. McKinley's condition permits. Dr. Rixey said Mrs. McKinley was much better Sunday than she had been Saturday night.

Mrs. McKinley bruised her hand while the train was rounding a sharp curve in Sunday's trip and she suffered considerably from the bruise since. Her delicate health has aggravated the injury and Dr. Rixey was twice compelled to lance it. The lancing relieved her very much for the time being.

Only a few hundred people greeted the president upon his arrival in this city. The president, in order to avoid the crowd that was expected to assemble at the Southern Pacific depot, at Third and Townsend streets, left the train with his little party at Valencia street, a station in the southern part of the city. When the train, consisting of a baggage car and the president's special coach, stopped at Valencia street, Mrs. McKinley was carried in a steamer chair by two colored porters from the private car to a closed carriage in waiting. She was heavily veiled and the president and Dr. Rixey followed close behind. Mrs. McKinley was gently placed in the carriage and the president and Dr. Rixey took seats in the same vehicle. The president was quite pale and looked serious. The rest of the party followed in carriages. Mr. and Mrs. Scott had arrived at their residence ahead of the president and were waiting to receive their distinguished guests. Mrs. McKinley was again lifted out of the carriage and placed in an invalid chair and carried into the house.

Secretary Cortelyou, when questioned concerning Mrs. McKinley's condition, stated that there was nothing alarming in her present indisposition and that perfect quiet and rest for a few days would restore her to her usual health. It was the impression, however, of those who saw Mrs. McKinley that she is very ill and that her present state may result in an entire change of the president's program.

Should his wife's health improve the president, it was expected, will carry out his intention to attend the celebration at San Jose today. If, however, her condition today shall be no better than Sunday, the president, it was expected, would not leave his wife's side, but would allow the cabinet officers and others of his party to represent him at San Jose.

About 6 o'clock last night Dr. Rixey made the following statement:

Mrs. McKinley Stood Trip Well.

Mrs. McKinley stood the trip from Delmonte much better than I expected. Her condition is not serious. She will stay here at least a week and have perfect rest. I think by that time she will be able to continue the journey. She has been gaining strength all afternoon."

Delmonte, Cal., May 13.—Mrs. McKinley's illness cast a shadow on the other members of the party who remained here, and there was talk at first of abandoning the entire schedule between here and San Francisco, but Mrs. McKinley especially requested that the plans of the party should not be disarranged by her departure, and when the president left Sunday morning the understanding was that the program originally fixed should be carried out. The president has himself said he would rejoin the party as soon as Mrs. McKinley shall be made comfortable.

The party was scheduled to leave here this morning, and after about a 10-minute stop at Pajaro, they would go to Santa Cruz for a glimpse of the big trees. It was not the expectation of the president that he could be at either of these places, but he thought he could meet the cabinet at San Jose, where great preparations have been made to receive him, and where the program was for the party to spend tonight. In that case he could enter San Francisco tomorrow afternoon, as originally contemplated, without disarranging the plans for the ovation arranged for him there. It is possible that Mrs. McKinley's condition, if it shall not improve as rapidly as hoped, may necessitate a curtailment of the program in San Francisco, and for the remainder of the trip.

The day after leaving New Orleans a bone felon appeared upon Mrs. McKinley's finger. Her hand became swollen and gave her considerable pain, and produced fever that prevented her from sleeping. Dr. Rixey twice lanced the felon and gave her some relief in that way. Mrs. McKinley bore it bravely and urged that the program at the cities and towns should not be modified in any particular on her account.

It was hoped that the rest here would do her good, but she slept little Saturday night, and Sunday morning, although her condition had improved, she reluctantly agreed to go to San Francisco at once. The party got away from the hotel so quietly that many of the guests did not know until evening that the President and Mrs. McKinley had gone.

Delmonte, Cal., May 13.—Owing to the state of Mrs. McKinley's health, the president and Mrs. McKinley, accompanied by Dr. Rixey and Miss Barber, the president's niece, left for San Francisco about 11:30 o'clock Sunday. They will go to the residence of Henry T. Scott there, and it is hoped that the complete rest will have a beneficial effect upon Mrs. McKinley. Her condition is said not to be alarming, but she is worn out by her long journey, and it was considered wise to take her to San Francisco, where she could have proper nursing and where specialists could be consulted if necessary.

The program for the party between here and San Francisco will be carried out as originally planned, and the president expects to be able to rejoin the party at San Jose this afternoon if Mrs. McKinley's condition warrants it.

BOOK ON AGRICULTURE.

Year Book of Department May Be Ready About July 1.

Washington, May 13.—The year book of the United States department of agriculture for 1900 is now in press and will be ready for distribution about July 1. In addition to the report of the secretary and the appendix, this volume contains 31 articles, in which each division of original work is represented. A new feature is the publication of requirements for admission to the agricultural department of the land colleges, and the cost of attendance.

The year book is a volume of 888 pages, illustrated with a frontispiece, 87 plates, of which nine are colored and 88 text figures. The regular edition is 500,000 copies, of which 470,000 are by law reserved for the exclusive use of congress, and 30,000 for the department. All others than crop correspondents must apply to their senators or representatives in congress.

The articles include: "Smyrna Fig Culture in the United States," "Amplification of Weather Forecasts," "Commercial Plant Introduction," "Forest Extension in the Middle West," "Influence of Rye on the Price of Wheat," "Mountain Roads," "Famous Diseases of Forest Trees," "Rabies," "The Scale Insect and Mite Enemies of Citrus Trees," "How Birds Affect the Orchard," "Hot Waves," "Potatoes as Food," "Practical Forestry in the Southern Appalachians," "Commercial Pear Culture," "Development of the Trucking Interests," "The Date Palm," "Practical Irrigation," "Free Delivery of Rural Mails," "Successful Wheat Growing in Semi-arid Districts."

STRUCK BY A CAR

A Wagon Loaded With Young People Wrecked in a Collision Near New York.

TWO PERSONS WERE KILLED

Five Placed in a Hospital—Others Had Wounds Dressed and Also Others Bruised—A Street Car Ran Away—One Person May Die.

New York, May 13.—Of 26 young people who started from College Point, L. I., on what is locally known as a "star light" ride, two were carried home dead, five are in the hospital, four were allowed to leave the hospital after having their wounds dressed, and every one of the remainder were more or less bruised. A collision with a trolley car caused the accident. The dead are Michael Schneir and Joseph Pickel.

The merry makers were on their way to a hotel 10 miles away, where they were to have a dance. They were all in one wagon, the bottom of which had been filled with straw. It was almost midnight when they reached Distler's hotel, on the edge of Jamaica. When in front of the house the driver of the wagon tried to cross the tracks of a trolley line in front of an approaching car, but the car struck the rear end of the wagon. The vehicle was demolished. Pickel was hurled into the air and fell 30 feet away, his head striking a fire hydrant. Schneir was also thrown into the air and landed head first on the macadam pavement. Both died in a short time.

Miss Mattie Debovise sustained a severe contusion of the chest and hips, and was the worst hurt among the injured. The car itself was badly wrecked, but none of the 25 passengers was injured.

The motorman was arrested, though claiming to be without blame in the matter.

New York, May 13.—An open trolley car, on which were packed about 115 persons, got away from the motorman Sunday near Fort Lee, N. J., and dashed down Leonia hill. Every person on the car was bruised, three were seriously hurt and only one of them is likely to die. Frank Sunstruck, the conductor, it is feared, may lose his life on account of possible internal injuries, and J. F. Robinson and his wife, of this city, are the two others who were seriously hurt.

The heavily loaded car had started down an incline a quarter of a mile in length, when the motorman lost control. It was so fast no one dared to jump off. The road is a winding one. At the foot of the hill it curves sharply.

When the front trucks hit the curve they started around it and made it. The rear ones followed part of the way. The wrench upon the car, however, as it swung about, was so great that the body was lifted and torn from the trucks and rolled over and hit the ground.

The passengers were caught in and under the car and were piled in a heap.

ATLAS LINE SOLD.

Hamburg-American Company Closes Important Deal—Now Largest In World.

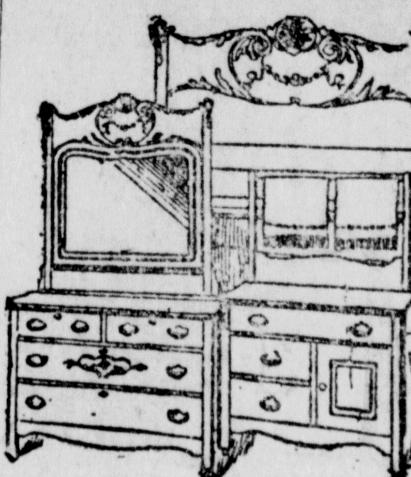

New York, May 13.—The announcement was made that the Hamburg-American line has acquired the Atlas steamship line, which for about the past 30 years has plied between Jamaica, Haiti and Central America. The Atlas line was formerly owned by an English corporation, but under the Hamburg-American line will fly the German flag.

This addition to the service makes the Hamburg-American steamship line the largest in the world, the entire tonnage being 630,000 tons, which is divided among 120 vessels, sailing in 30 different services. By its acquisition of the Atlas line it has gained seven new steamers of an average tonnage of 3,000.

Emil L. Boas, general manager for North America of the Hamburg-American line, admitted that the Atlas line had been acquired by his company, the deal having been consummated the latter part of the week. He said that the company intended greatly improving the service on the Atlas line and that he expected in the near future several new and modern vessels would be built for the South American service. The Atlas fleet consists of the steamships Altal, Alps, Althos, Allegheny, Adirondack, Andes and Alene. It was said about $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 was paid.

Found Body of a Man.

Hamilton, O., May 13.—While John Kyle, a farmer living near Monroe, a village 10 miles east of Hamilton, was harrowing a field on his farm, he came across the badly decomposed remains of a man hanging to a fence stake in a corner of the field. From the appearance the body had evidently been hanging for two weeks. The face was so decomposed that Kyle was unable to tell whether the man was white or a negro. Coroner Sharkey will make an investigation.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

Once a week or oftener the NEWS REVIEW will publish a department of lodge news. Officers and members of the various orders are invited to contribute. The name and address of the writer must accompany every communication.

The Modern Woodmen of America, at their meeting Wednesday evening, transacted routine business and balloted on three new new candidates. They will be initiated at the meeting of the order on Wednesday, May 22.

The Woodmen of the World held a special meeting Wednesday evening and initiated 16 new members. The order at this meeting commenced making arrangements for the unveiling of monuments, which will be held soon.

The degree team of Pride of the East council No. 8, Jr. O. U. A. M., will go to Toronto tomorrow evening for a visit to Toronto council No. 10, and they will initiate several new candidates.

The Daughters of Rebekah will give a musical and social in I. O. O. F. hall tomorrow evening. They have secured Miss Eva Dunning, a noted elocutionist of Columbus, and also considerable home talent. A good time is expected.

The Daughters of America, at their meeting Wednesday evening, received six new applications for membership. They will be initiated at their meeting next Wednesday evening. The committees appointed to make arrangements for the entertainment of the state council of the order to be held in this city in September, reported that arrangements are complete in every detail.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle, at their meeting last Tuesday evening, received two new applications for membership and action will be taken on them at their meeting tomorrow night. They also decided on their annual picnic and reunion, which will be held at Cascade Park July 27. All orders from eastern Ohio and western Pennsylvania will be in attendance at the reunion.

The Ladies of the Golden Eagle, at their last meeting, entertained a number of Pride of the East Temple No. 21, of Lisbon. The following were present: Mrs. Bert Gamble, Mrs. John Edwards, Mrs. J. O. Morrow, Mrs. James Henderson, Misses Laura Hoopes, Etta Dick, Sarah Davis and John Strouges, Harry Paisley, Ed Nicholson and John Davis. The Pride of the East Temple brought two new candidates with them and they were initiated here, after which refreshments were served and those present enjoyed themselves until an early hour Saturday morning.

At the meeting of the subordinate lodge of Odd Fellows tonight two candidates will be given the first degree. A report will also be heard from the committee in charge of the picnic scheduled for June 5. Prospects are good for a very large attendance at this gathering, as encouraging reports have been received from a large number of sister lodges. The canton has decided to take an active part in the affair, and with that end in view has arranged for the entertainment of members of the Patriarchs Militant, from Pittsburg, Allegheny, Steubenville, Salem, Lisbon, Canton, Massillon and other points. A part of the day's entertainment will consist of an exhibition drill by this branch of the order. Two hundred invitations have been issued to the present, and more will be added within the next week.

Two candidates will be taken into the camp at the meeting Wednesday evening, and one applicant will be shown the mysteries of the camp.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature And of Matters About Town.

Wanted — a Game — The Century base ball club would like to have a game with the West End Rovers at an early date as possible for love or money.

S. P. A. Club Ball — The S. P. A. club will hold a dance at Rock Springs park tomorrow evening. The music will be furnished by an Italian orchestra.

Sixty at First Communion — Yesterday morning at St. Aloysius church at high mass at 8 o'clock 60 children took first communion. They also took renewal of baptism vows, pledged until 21 and were invested with the scapular of Mt. Carmel.

III in New York — Ed Way, eastern representative, of the R. Thomas & Sons Co., of this city, is seriously ill at his home in New York city. Mr. Way formerly conducted a store here and was well and favorably known.

Wire Broke — A dead electric wire crossing Market street, between Third and Fourth, broke and fell Sunday afternoon and frightened a number of pedestrians who were in close proximity and who supposed the wire was charged. A motorman removed the obstruction.

Horse Fell on the Street — A horse driven by Attorney F. E. Grosshans fell at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets last evening and sustained several severe bruises about the head and fore legs. Mr. Grosshans was thrown from the buggy, but was not injured.

Will Meet Wednesday — The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet in regular session Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This will be the first held since the time of meeting was changed from Saturday to Wednesday.

Comers and Goers — The following movements were handled at the freight station today: Charles Debee, to Sebring; John H. Litmer, to Canton; Joseph Kenyon, to Massillon; Jacob Reiss, to Dennison. The goods of A. Bowman, from East Palestine, and of J. Levellara, from New Castle, were received.

Spoke at the Presbyterian Church — Rev. James Hedges, of Kenwick, Idaho, and Rev. James Hays, a native Nez Perces Indian, who have been spending a few days in this city, will leave tomorrow morning for Philadelphia, where they will attend the meeting of the general assembly. The reverend gentlemen addressed the congregation of the First Presbyterian church last evening and made a deep impression.

STILL AGGRESSIVE

The Papers Authorizing the Stock Company Among Striking Plumbers Will Arrive Soon.

The headquarters of the striking plumbers is still open, and is a very popular resort for them, at least once a day, as they are required to register each day in order to draw their strike benefits.

The movement to organize a stock company gives promise of reaching a successful consummation. The license and returns from the bond required by law were expected to arrive Saturday, but have not yet been received. Just as soon as this is heard from no time will be lost in electing officers and getting matters in shape for doing work.

There is no change in the situation as far as the strike is concerned, and the men are more determined than ever to win. Some of the strikers are doing considerable work about the city, and are experiencing very little difficulty in the matter of securing supplies, as those of the firms who signed the scale are lending whatever assistance they can to the men.

SOUTH SIDE.

NOT SUSTAINED

The Charge of Theft Brought Against William Glendenning Unsubstantiated.

The case of George Conn against William Glendenning was heard in Justice Johnston's court Saturday afternoon. Conn alleged that Glendenning had stolen tools from the T. L. & S. pottery. Conn failed to sustain the charge and the evidence seemed to indicate very poor ground for bringing the action.

The facts brought out showed that Conn had found a shovel which he claimed belonged to him, on the river shore near Glendenning's boat house. According to Glendenning, Conn accused him of stealing the shovel and started to take it back to the pottery. Glendenning interfered and Conn brought the action as the result. The case was dismissed at the expense of the plaintiff, and the shovel still remains on the river shore without a claimant.

FELL FROM A HAND CAR.

Thomas Kinney Badly Bruised in an Accident Saturday

Thomas Kinney fell from a rapidly moving hand car near Newell's station Saturday evening and was severely injured. An ankle was sprained and he was badly bruised. He also received internal injuries that may prove serious. He was taken to his home in Chester, where he will be laid up for some time.

Williams-Wallace.

William Wallace, of Uhrichsville, O., and Miss Pearl Williams, of Chester, were married at the bride's home at 11 o'clock this morning. Rev. H. M. Carnahan performed the ceremony. The happy couple left for a short honeymoon, after which they will reside at Uhrichsville.

CHESTER NEWS.

J. B. Pierce and G. A. Arner will go to Pittsburg on business tomorrow.

The final test of the roller coaster was made Saturday evening and everything ran very smoothly. A number of people were riding today.

Denies That He Is Married.

John Cunningham denies the report that he and Mrs. Ollie Jackson were married Thursday evening, as was announced Saturday. The announcement came from Mr. Cunningham's family and published in good faith.

The Manager of Columbian Park desires to state to the public that he is now ready to make dates for the park; picnics, private dances, horse races, bicycle races, ball games, concerts, etc.

Don't Be Blind To Facts You Should Know

The Testing of the Eyes by a competent Optician is not a matter of guess work, nor is it a matter of trying on glasses promiscuously, but it is a science governed by principles which none but a person who has studied the science of Optics can understand. We have, with years of experience and close application to properly fitting of glasses to the sight, acquired the knowledge of knowing how, a fact which certainly gives us a great advantage.

Come and let us examine your eyes and we will advise you regarding the true condition of them.
